Executive Director of Equity and Achievement, Jer Argo, introduced the new Native American Education Facilitator for the district, Aryanna Sherman, to the board. He shared that Ayranna comes with a lot of experience, and that we are excited to have her join the White River family.

C. Board and Superintendent Highlights

Superintendent Harrison shared that all kids are back in school and its good to have buildings filled again. He wanted to give a huge shout out to the maintenance and custodial teams for all their hard work completing summer projects and getting our schools ready for the new school year. Fall athletics looks good, over 800 participants and enrollment looks good.

Director Vogel asked about any impacts from the closure of the White River Bridge.

Superintendent Harrison shared that Executive Director of Human Resources is doing a good job communicating with staff and seeing if there are any needs. An Interdistrict Agreement with Enumclaw SD regarding transportation of athletes is up on the agenda for approval this evening. The Governor presented this morning at the bridge and the hope is for a November reopening.

III. Highlight

A. WRHS ASB Activities Report

White River High School leadership students presented information on things that have been occurring at the high school. First, they introduced their Word of the Year, which was culture, as they want to build a culture at the high school. The new Vice President was introduced to the board. They shared information regarding the ASB Retreat that they had over the summer, Senior Sunrise, Leadership Prep Day, Freshman First Day and Homecoming Spirit Week. A fall sports update was given and upcoming events were shared.

B. Glacier Middle School Leadership- Camp Columbia

Glacier Middle School Leadership teacher Becky LaMont gave a brief overview of the theme for Camp this year. Students introduced themselves and shared their experiences at camp to include highlights, things they learned, and things they'll bring back to school. Mrs. LaMont shared her highlights of the experience and how proud she was of the students; she sees the confidence they get and the impact they have. She thanked the WREF for their support. This is the fourth year that students have been able to participate, and she sees the effects ripple through the school.
