Public Comment -3 minutes

- Antone- Shout out to admin and coordinators for the smooth quarantine process
- Maria Gonzalez- Would like to thank the JJMS team. She had a student here before. She is very happy with the school
- Maria Palencia- Thank you for managing the way we have been handling the COVID protocols.
- Griego- Coming to the board with a heavy heart, feeling that the administration is not being as transparent, and being protective of me as a staff member. Due to events, the board should know, feels the workplace is very hostile and she feels there is little communication. Not getting the transparency from administrations. Asking questions and responses are not clear. Specific policies for unvaccinated employees. Not given the clarity that is needed.

- Smith- It is our responsibility to keep everyone safe and make sure the vaccinated and unvaccinated follow the policy. This is not the forum for individual employee issues.
- Parent Lopez- What are the demerits?

E. Lead Teacher Report

Antone- Teachers were asked a survey. Teachers feel tired and fatigued. Having difficulty with transitioning. Leads met with admin and it was agreed to share slides to allow more time for teacher independent time. Collaborating, grading, and planning.

II. Financials

A. Unaudited Actuals

B. Smith made a motion to approve the Unaudited Actuals for submission to LAUSD.

N. Mondragon seconded the motion.

Unaudited Actuals- Previously approved and submitted to LAUSD.

- This includes all the funds. With all numbers to explain how we are spending the money in each bucket.

III. Academic Achievement

A. Impact of COVID-19 on instruction during 2021-22

During the week of 9/7, all students and staff were tested on campus for COVID-19. The results were zero 6th grade students tested positive. One 7th grade student tested positive and three 8th grade students tested positive. This represents a positivity rate of .008%, which is far less than the LA county rate of 1.87% for the same week. The safety measures at JJMS are clearly working to reduce the risk of transmission. Vaccinated students and staff who were exposed tested and returned to campus. Unvaccinated staff and students will quarantine for 10 days and will participate in regular class schedule via zoom.

- State 4.5% Positivity rate
- LA County 1.87%
- JJMS 0.008%

IV. Governance

A. Consideration of a vaccine mandate for JJMS students

- Smith- As a parent think of the possibility of approving a similar LAUSD student vaccination mandate
- LAUSD is not accepting religious beliefs/personal belief
- Asking the board to consider mandating a vaccine policy for all students
- Maria Plasencia- Yes, I agree. All my kids are vaccinated.
- Mondragon- Yes. Students should be vaccinated.

- Belle- Agrees with Ms. Mondragon. It's imperative that the students are vaccinated.
- Lambros- Agrees.
- Edelen- Agrees and we should adopt a vaccination schedule similar to LAUSD.
- 30 days after the 12th birthdate. Everyone must be vaccinated by January 10th, 2022.
- Antone- Some parents may oppose the mandate. Concern that we are dealing with a lot of parent communication about COVID. Maybe JJMS can create a new timeline.

B. Smith made a motion to create a JJMS student mandate for the COVID-19 vaccine that matches the terms of the LAUSD board-approved vaccine mandate on 9/9/2021.

N. Mondragon seconded the motion.

The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.
