B. Executive Director Report on Staffing

Dr. Marsh-

The labor shortage in public education.

Classified positions that are still open

Trying to compensate for the additional stress for staff. The Board approved the small December bonus for staff.

Not a problem unique to JJMS.

National crisis. Added a few paid days off for the classified staff.

In January we may have some board members to think about what is possible. Some efforts to help relieve stress are not welcomed for all.

Smith-

The board appreciates everything that you are trying to do. We are all stretched on every single job. When we go through tough times, we come together. The board values all staff and the kids. No one knew this would become. Please try to help us, help you. Lets us know. If it's something that you can do to make it work. If we all do what we are supposed to do, we will get out of this safely. Don't lose hope, kindness, and civility. Askin to step in someone else's shoes. Sometimes it will work your way and sometimes it will not. Let's work together. Amongst us and not destroy us. Put the focus on the kids.

Lambros-

What are the team-building activities or plans for a winter party?

Offers the facility for team building.

Host a team party to energize the staff.

Lara-

Invites the board to come and lead some team-building activities.

Smith-

Not signing off to a party as we are still in a pandemic.

Ramos-

Appreciates help from admin

Guzman-

Curriculum training in UnBoundEd.

Meaningful experience with an organized PD.

Some teachers eat then tutor

Todd-

Overall, I feel like I am doing pretty well, but I have a lot more experience than a lot of other teachers on our campus.

Pineda-

The support I am getting from Mrs. Green during this busy year with IEP's has really been helpful. It would be helpful to have more time to collaborate as a department. I agree with Ms. Ramos, time to collaborate with my team is valuable.
