II. Academic Oversight

A. Instructional Updates

- Has been very challenging start of the year with the Omicron surge. About 1/3 staff absent each day. Student daily attendance 75-83% for the first week back from break. Chronic absence rate up to almost 25%.
- Talking with County about options. Working very hard to stay open and not need to make up instructional minutes at the end of the year or spring break.
- Amethyst shift
  - Change is always hard but by day 2 already going much smoother. Daniel in the classroom supporting. Conversations with students going well.
  - Amplify assessments, some hiccups with tech but not disruptive, differentiation for each lesson.
  - Coach Wooten started teaching PE (Welcome!!)
  - Sarah commended and inquired on transparency with students and student agency.

- Social-emotional / well-being -- Panorama survey will be launched within next week or so. Will also launch staff and family versions.
- 1 suspension so far this school year.
- NWEA MAP testing still supposed to start next week. Likely will need longer window due to how many absences each day.

B. COVID Updates

- 5 positive cases from first Monday testing (back from break)- those students did not come to school. 3 additional cases identified.
- Continuing Friday testings but results are taking longer. Trying to procure more tests but expensive and shipping delays.
- Staff have KN95- county has named some will be provided, but no more details.
- End of the month is deadline for vaccine; don't anticipate any disruptions for our students. OUSD may move date out again
- Suggestion from Sarah- ask families to contribute any "extras" rapid tests they may have
- Suggestion from Kara- possibly fundraise for rapid tests
- Encouraged school to reach out for family volunteers to support staffing needs that don't require teaching expertise

III. Closing Items

A. Topics for next meeting

- Request for another update on middle school program
- Curriculum decisions or needs for next year
- Update on NWEA MAP progress

B. Adjourn Meeting

Respectfully Submitted,
