II. Agenda Items

- A. Community Listening Session (5:30pm-6:30pm)

The Pullman School District Board of Directors are hosting a Community Listening Session on Wednesday, March 19, from 5:30pm-6:30pm to allow community members an opportunity to engage directly with our school board members on the following topic:

- Budget Information & Priorities

This presentation-based event will share key insights on the district's budget and priorities. Throughout the session, we'll gather input from participants through interactive survey questions, offering opportunities for participants to share their thoughts in real time.

B. Board Work Session (6:30pm-7:30pm)

- Community Listening Session Debrief

Board work sessions are open to the public for observation only. The School Board does not receive public comment during board work sessions.
