II. Head of School Report

A. July/August Report

- Beginning of School Year
 - Today was Day 2 of school
 - 5 days of PD that ended with Meet Your Teacher event
 - Began framing the work that'll be done this year
 - Jessica and Molly led presentation outlining changes and instructional priorities
 - Document submissions were helpful in determining the direction the school needs to go (examined annual reports, accountability plans, charter, etc.)
 - Ex: In past years, when instructional priorities have been identified they've come from top down
 - Changes for SY24-25
 - Extended time on learning, student seminar class (incorporating skills on executive functioning, technology, studying skills), reimaged enrichment (expanded to 5 days/week, now optional), shortened recess, personalized learning programs
 - General focus on personal instruction, something that's cited numerous times in MCCPS' original charter
- Enrollment
 - Currently 193 but likely to shake out to 191 by next week (up from 172 at beginning of SY23-24)
 - Stephanie mentioned that several parents from out of district had to send students elsewhere because of transportation
 - MCCPS, as a district, is unable to facilitate transportation for out-of-district families per state rules
- Other Updates
 - MCCPS selected (one of 30 schools) by the TNTP (The New Teacher Project) as part of 3-5 year initiative, sponsored by DESE to help MCCPS leadership team move the school forward via high-leverage instructional priorities
 - Visits happening 9/19-9/20, TNTP will afterwards provide instructional ideas and provide coaching on how to implement instructional changes

- Will also include monthly meetings on instructional priorities/focus areas (which include standards-aligned assessments and aligning project based learning to grade level standards)
- Note: TNTP is a national organization, and this is part of their LAN (Learning Acceleration Network)
- This & Coming Weeks
 - Character Strong begins this week
 - iReady testing begins soon
 - This work will inform groups for PALS program
 - Enrichment begins 9/16
- Staffing
 - Currently seeking 6th grade inclusion teacher
 - Jess X certified to handle this in the immediate term, and 2 interviews are scheduled for this week
 - Currently have an open ESL position
 - Approx. 15 English language learners at MCCPS
- Miscellaneous
 - DESE site visit scheduled for 11/1 as part of Charter renewal, and they'll also likely ask for virtual interviews with BOT members
 - After school care: 25 families enrolled for T/TH (filled), and 4-5 slots available for MWF
 - 7th Grade goes to Project Adventure next week
 - Parent dinners scheduled for mid-September
 - These will be opportunities for families to network and get to know each-other
- Questions
 - Polly: can you elaborate on some of the concerns voiced by the faculty regarding scheduling changes?
 - Concerns about losing people, service providers having to be creative in drafting schedules
 - Polly: how are PALS blocks decided upon
 - Teachers will decide groupings for students
