1:1 Technology Update - all students receiving an Otterbox case along with their Chromebooks, agreement went out to parents, students must return paperwork before they receive the "golden ticket" to get the computer

March 11th: student celebration 20 in 2020, details TBD

Educational Excellence: revamping two things, awards ceremonies and realigning the K-1 expectations to match our revised academic goals for this age group. Both items will be discussed during committee updates later in the meeting.

Mid-year iStation: Matches the other data we see in K-3, skills growing as they get older iReady will also be done this week in some grades

2nd quarter report cards going home this Friday.

Expansion & Finance

Access Grant - The Board will consider 2020 application and amendment to Admissions Policy for next year.

The grant is designed to help schools expand with the purpose of increasing diversity. Scholars Academy meets the criteria to apply.

Teachers and Staff

Seven scholars teachers plan to attend NCAGT in March. NCAGT will be doing a site visit to Scholars Academy in order to learn about our school culture.

March 13 will be an internal professional development day instead of Gifted Conference this year.

There is a new teacher assistant in 2nd grade, the TA's have been reassigned, one staff member has been moved from part-time to full-time.

Calendar

Because the Republican National Convention will be taking place in Charlotte and increased traffic and road closures are expected, CMS has decided the first day of school will be moved to August 31. SA has the option to follow suit and eliminate two work days to accommodate the shorter school year, or keep the first day on August 26 and keep the work days.

The Board will discuss the calendar in closed session.

Policy

School policy was amended to create a policy around students taking school technology home.

IV. Governance Committee

A. Governance Committee Update

S. Liner reported.

With the departure of A. O'Rourke from the Board, there is a vacancy on the policy committee. A. Farouqi will take the seat on the committee and will be the committee chair.

Director's Evaluation - board members have received an invitation to fill out Ms. Pieper's evaluation. Deadline is February 24.

A. Gozycki reported on the Strategic Plan.

Continued academic excellence, organized community development, and responsible growth planning are the focuses of the new Strategic Plan.

Members of the Board will go back to the committees to determine actionable tasks that align with the focus of the new Strategic Plan to be worked on from 2021-2025. There is a two month deadline on this feedback. The new plan will be voted on at the April Board Meeting.

V. Educational Excellence Committee

A. Ed Ex Update

A. Gozycki gave the Educational Excellence Update

Award Ceremony

The goal is to change the awards and the award ceremony to better align with our goals. We want to focus more on social and emotional skills. Awards will, going forward, focus on the vision explicitly stated in the charter. Intellectual Engagement Awards will be replaced with awards named for the nine bullet points listed under "Vision for our Graduates" document accessible on the school website. Grades 4-8 will be a student-only award ceremony. K-3 awards will be an in-classroom community celebration with parents present. This will start this school year.

K-1 Report Cards

Discussion will be tabled until the February meeting.

VI. Finance Committee Update

A. Finance Committee Update

M. Mittal reported

The Board reviewed proposed budget amendments and the Quarterly Financial Snapshot. M. Mittal also reported an update on the book values of certificates of deposit.

Refinance

SA has six months to make a decision on the refinance of the mortgage.

B. Budget Amendments

M. Mittal made a motion to approve the proposed budget amendments.

S. Dasu seconded the motion.

The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.

M. Mittal made a motion to Close the Suntrust account and move the money to another bank.

S. Dasu seconded the motion.

This is an emergency fund that was held in Suntrust as to keep it separate from other funds in the BB&T account. Now that BB&T and Suntrust have merged, the funds should move to another bank.

The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.

The Board acknowledges the receipt of the tax return for the 2018-2019 financial year.

VII. Development Committee

A. Development Update

A. Farooqi reported

Annual Giving Campaign

Ambassador program has begun. Tracking on pledged gifts and fulfilled pledges is approximately in line with what was received year-to-date last year. Average gift amount is lower than last year.
