III. Director's Report

A. General Items

• Staff Update (6:56)

- Bus Drivers- New bus driver started on 10/17, in the process of hiring a new bus driver. Mr. Marino will be a backup driver to fill in for when a bus driver isn't available.
- Ms. Hanson has moved to the 1st-grade classroom as a long-term substitute until a permanent hire has been made for that classroom. We are hiring for a long-term substitute who can serve as a backup TA.

- In the process of interviewing teacher assistants (TAs)
- Short on substitutes 2 or 3 times every week. Looking for people willing to serve as substitutes.
- New counselor started and has started going to classrooms to meet the students.
- Compliance
 - Discussed the Title II - Prayer and Assurance Form - no vote needed (attached to the agenda)
 - Grant funding is used for teacher development.
- Enrollment and Staffing
 - 390 students for the 2022-2023 school year.
 - Projected to increase to 442 in 2023-2024 SY if expansion happens. 390 this year.
 - The current waitlist is 222 for all grades up from 193.
 - 88% teacher retention, 95% student retention.
- Marketing update (Alicia) (18:45)
 - Alicia reviewed the marketing plan for this school year
 - Leveraging social media to connect with the community, families, alumni
 - No-cost marketing channels
 - Virtual parent support group (monthly, except February)
 - Gifted Minds Conference virtual and in-person (February)
 - Virtual Q&A sessions
 - Media Placement:
 - Niche.com partnership is live. We have a tailored profile. Meet with rep monthly.
 - Qcitymetro.com was founded in 2008, to serve the local black audience in Charlotte, 7,500+ Facebook, and 9,000+ daily newsletter reach (33% open rate). Sponsored article to increase awareness of Scholars as an option, as well as highlight our DEI accomplishments. Added value - feature in their Living Charlotte section.
 - National Association for Gifted Children - NAGC News Source (weekly newsletter) to promote the conference in February and increase awareness of Scholars. They have a 60% - 70% open rate.
 - Earmarked funds for Hispanic media. The preference is to build a relationship with this community through an in-person event with staff and potentially older students.
