II. Academic Excellence

A. Academic Updates

Mission moment

Denise presented that Enlace kicked off the 8th grade plan.

Cara, honors track on English and Math. Doing Outstanding.

Katie shared 3 broad data points. More information will be available in January after assessments.

For quarter 1

- 94.6 the goal is 95%
- 2.6 suspension rate Goal is under 12%
- 87.5% goal is 80%

Next-Gen SIG

- ESSER funds were used for educational opportunities. That money will expire soon.
- We want to continue those programs and the answer was the next-gen SIG program.
- Enlace Academy received one of five grants that were awarded in the state.

Statement of Opportunity

- It is recommended that every 30ML student be supported by a qualified ML teacher.
- Insufficient learning acceleration and well-being resources for ML students and families
- provide online and in-person support.

1. Hire, develop, and support highly qualified licensed ML teachers.
2. Structure the school day to personalize/differentiate learning
3. Provide personalized differentiating learning acceleration resources beyond the school day for students and families.
4. Provide personalized differentiated employability skills support.

III. Finance

A. Finance updates

Brian presented the October financial summary.

- Through October, we are ahead on revenue. Some are due to timing issues of grant reimbursement.
- Total expenses are under for staffing reasons, we don't budget for vacancies.
- We project that revenue and expense will be close.
- Enlace is in a good cash position.

Board goals, 3-year budget projection.

- Enlace was awarded 3.4m for ESSER III, used for high-dosage tutoring, bilingual and SEL staffing, and transportation. It will end on September 30, 2024.
- NextGen SIG is 3.3M and will be used for extended learning and bilingual and SEL staffing.
- IPS Innovation Agreement ends on June 2025
 - Building lease (Cost $0)
 - Transportation (Rev. $300k)
 - Task board, Brandon, Caitlin, and Jamie to negotiate the IPS innovation agreement.
- OEI Charter School Agreement.

IPS has signaled that the innovation agreements will be changed from the benefits Enlace currently receives. We anticipate, that Charters will receive more property tax-based. Which we anticipate will come from IPS's revenue.

IV. Governance

A. Reporting

B. Delk made a motion to update the financial and procedures manual to include the time and effort policy and procedures.

R. Hall seconded the motion.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.
