A. Public Comment

Addressing the Board – Board meetings are meetings of the Board of Directors and will be held in a civil, orderly and respectful manner. All public comments or questions should be addressed to the Board through the Chair of the Board. To ensure an orderly meeting and an equal opportunity for each speaker, persons wishing to address the Board must complete a Speaker Request Card and submit it to Miguel Aguilar, Executive Assistant to the CEO. The Speaker Request Card must contain speaker name, contact number or email, and subject matter and submitted to the Executive Assistant to the CEO prior to the start of the meeting. Members of the public may address the Board on any matter within the Board’s jurisdiction and have three (3) minutes each to do so. The total time of each subject will be fifteen (15) minutes, unless additional time is requested by a Board Member and approved by the Board.

The Board may not deliberate or take action on items that are not on the agenda. However, the Board may give direction to staff following a presentation. The Chair is in charge of the meeting and will maintain order, set the time limits for the speakers and the subject matter, and will have the prerogative to remove any person who is disruptive of the Board meeting. The Board of Directors may place limitations on the total time to be devoted to each topic if it finds that the numbers of speakers would impede the Board’s ability to conduct its business in a timely manner. The Board of Directors may also allow for additional public comment and questions after reports and presentations if it deems necessary.

California Department of Education School Accountability Report Card Reported Using Data from the 2016-17 School Year

By February 1 of each year, every school in California is required by state law to publish a School Accountability Report Card (SARC). The SARC contains information about the condition and performance of each California public school. Under the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) all local educational agencies (LEAs) are required to prepare a Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP), which describes how they intend to meet annual school-specific goals for all pupils, with specific activities to address state and local priorities. Additionally, data reported in an LCAP is to be consistent with data reported in the SARC.

- For more information about SARC requirements, see the California Department of Education (CDE) SARC Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/sa/>.
- For more information about the LCFF or LCAP, see the CDE LCFF Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/fq/aa/lc/>.
- For additional information about the school, parents/guardians and community members should contact the school principal or the district office.

DataQuest

DataQuest is an online data tool located on the CDE DataQuest Web page that contains additional information about this school and comparisons of the school to the district and the county. Specifically, DataQuest is a dynamic system that provides reports for accountability (e.g., test data, enrollment, high school graduates, dropouts, course enrollments, staffing, and data regarding English learners).

Internet Access

Internet access is available at public libraries and other locations that are publicly accessible (e.g., the California State Library). Access to the Internet at libraries and public locations is generally provided on a first-come, first-served basis. Other use restrictions may include the hours of operation, the length of time that a workstation may be used (depending on availability), the types of software programs available on a workstation, and the ability to print documents.

About Our School

We are happy scholars and families choose to make Compass Charter Schools (CCS) their school of choice. I am proud to be the President & CEO of CCS, and look forward working with our faculty and staff to provide a quality independent study program to every scholar we serve. Everyone at CCS is committed to creating a nurturing environment as we work with our scholars to meet their unique learning needs. There are a few vocabulary words that we use which make our school culture unique to many others.

CCS VOCABULARY

Like any school CCS has its own unique culture. To help you understand part of the culture of CCS it is important you understand our use of the following key terms:

Learning Coach

Parents/guardians are known as the "Learning Coach" for their children and they are an integral part of their children's success at CCS. Since we are an independent study virtual school much of the learning is facilitated by the Learning Coach.

Scholar

At CCS we choose to refer to students as "scholar." Scholar is defined as a person who is highly educated or has an aptitude for study; a distinguished academic. We refer to students as scholars because we want to emphasize our commitment to helping every individual be academically successful.

We look forward to being part of our scholars educational journey, and invite you to learn more about us through this School Accountability Report Card and by visiting us online at www.compasscharters.org!

Respectfully,

J.J. Lewis, M.Ed.

School Description and Mission Statement (School Year 2017-18)

In 2012, Compass Charter Schools (CCS) began with a small team of educators in southern California committed to providing a safe, family-centered alternative to the traditional brick and mortar school for scholars throughout the state. While CCS has evolved over the years, the desire to provide excellent educational options has remained strong with our online and home school programs. Over the past five years, we have educated the highly gifted, the bullied, the athlete, the actor, the academically-challenged, the chronically ill, and many other scholars who sought a personalized educational experience outside traditional classroom walls.

Today we work diligently to grow our learning community with families, scholars and staff who value each other and exemplify respect, kindness, teamwork and open communication. We believe in running a school built on integrity and ethical decision-making. We nurture those who have been wounded in some way by the traditional school setting, those not able to find flexible academic programs to fit their needs, and those in need of guidance as they tread on unfamiliar ground as homeschoolers. CCS truly cares about our scholars and is not only dedicated to their academic success but to their social and emotional development.

Whatever the reason behind our scholars' enrollment in Compass Charter Schools, we are here to provide an environment where our scholars can feel safe and inspired to develop into confident, innovative, creative, self-directed scholars. Our scholars find success here at Compass Charter Schools because they have the support of a dedicated staff and their loving families. It is a privilege that each and every day we get to help our scholars charter their educational future. We are loud and proud about making a difference in the lives of our scholars!

Mission Statement

Our mission is to inspire and develop innovative, creative, self-directed learners, one scholar at a time.

Vision Statement

Our vision is to create a collaborative virtual learning community, inspiring scholars to appreciate the ways in which arts and sciences nurture a curiosity for life-long learning, and prepare scholars to take responsibility for their future success.

State Priority: Basic

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the State priority: Basic (Priority 1):

- Degree to which teachers are appropriately assigned and fully credentialed in the subject area and for the pupils they are teaching;
- Pupils have access to standards-aligned instructional materials; and
- School facilities are maintained in good repair

B. Pupil Outcomes

State Priority: Pupil Achievement

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the State priority: Pupil Achievement (Priority 4):

- Statewide assessments (i.e., California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress [CAASPP] System, which includes the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments for students in the general education population and the California Alternate Assessments [CAAs] for English language arts/literacy [ELA] and mathematics given in grades three through eight and grade eleven. Only eligible students may participate in the administration of the CAAs. CAAs items are aligned with alternate achievement standards, which are linked with the Common Core State Standards [CCSS] for students with the most significant cognitive disabilities); and
- The percentage of students who have successfully completed courses that satisfy the requirements for entrance to the University of California and the California State University, or career technical education sequences or programs of study.

Note: Double dashes (--) appear in the table when the number of students is ten or less, either because the number of students in this category is too small for statistical accuracy or to protect student privacy.

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the State priority: Parental Involvement (Priority 3):

- Efforts the school district makes to seek parent input in making decisions for the school district and each schoolsite

Opportunities for Parental Involvement (School Year 2017-18)

We are proud to have opportunities available for parental involvement:

Coaches' Corner

Coaches' Corner is a bi-weekly online meeting presented by our staff that teaches parents the skills and knowledge they need to help their scholar(s) succeed at Compass Charter Schools.

Coaches' Corners are every other Wednesday at 1 pm. This virtual presentation lasts 10-20 minutes, and is followed by a live Q & A with presenters and learning coaches afterwards.

Parent Advisory Council

The Parent Advisory Council serves to provide parent feedback on school policies and procedures at Compass Charter Schools to ensure that they are consistent with its Mission, Vision, and Values.

Members act as a committed group of advisors to the staff and administration, regarding issues that affect the scholars and school of CCS. They provide feedback and insight from the parent's perspective on school process, policies and initiatives to ensure that the needs of parents and their families are included as decisions are made. They also serve as an advisory, not a decision-making body, that makes recommendations, encourages brainstorming and provides opportunities for parent involvement on committees.

While we are a virtual academy, we do have a School Safety Plan for our Learning Centers. Professional Development

In order to cultivate a culture of lifelong learning, Compass Charter Schools provides constant and relevant professional development for its staff. We host a week-long in-person All-Staff Retreat in August. In addition to this school-wide training, we provide each division a professional development budget for staff to utilize to attend conferences and workshops. Staff are encouraged to share what they have learned in either a department, division or all-staff setting once they return from these self-selected opportunities. We strive to enhance our offerings to ensure all staff are equipped with the necessary information to best serve and support our scholars and each other.

Compass Charter Schools of San Diego

California Department of Education School Accountability Report Card Reported Using Data from the 2016-17 School Year

By February 1 of each year, every school in California is required by state law to publish a School Accountability Report Card (SARC). The SARC contains information about the condition and performance of each California public school. Under the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) all local educational agencies (LEAs) are required to prepare a Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP), which describes how they intend to meet annual school-specific goals for all pupils, with specific activities to address state and local priorities. Additionally, data reported in an LCAP is to be consistent with data reported in the SARC.

- For more information about SARC requirements, see the California Department of Education (CDE) SARC Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/sa/>.
- For more information about the LCFF or LCAP, see the CDE LCFF Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/fq/aa/lc/>.
- For additional information about the school, parents/guardians and community members should contact the school principal or the district office.

DataQuest

DataQuest is an online data tool located on the CDE DataQuest Web page that contains additional information about this school and comparisons of the school to the district and the county. Specifically, DataQuest is a dynamic system that provides reports for accountability (e.g., test data, enrollment, high school graduates, dropouts, course enrollments, staffing, and data regarding English learners).

Internet Access

Internet access is available at public libraries and other locations that are publicly accessible (e.g., the California State Library). Access to the Internet at libraries and public locations is generally provided on a first-come, first-served basis. Other use restrictions may include the hours of operation, the length of time that a workstation may be used (depending on availability), the types of software programs available on a workstation, and the ability to print documents.

Note: ELA test results include the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment and the CAA. The "Percent Met or Exceeded" is calculated by taking the total number of students who met or exceeded the standard on the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment plus the total number of students who met the standard (i.e., achieved Level 3--Alternate) on the CAAs divided by the total number of students who participated in both assessments.

Note: Double dashes (--) appear in the table when the number of students is ten or less, either because the number of students in this category is too small for statistical accuracy or to protect student privacy.

Note: The number of students tested includes all students who participated in the test whether they received a score or not; however, the number of students tested is not the number that was used to calculate the achievement level percentages. The achievement level percentages are calculated using only students who received scores.

Coaches' Corner

Coaches' Corner is a bi-weekly online meeting presented by our staff that teaches parents the skills and knowledge they need to help their scholar(s) succeed at Compass Charter Schools.

Coaches' Corners are every other Wednesday at 1 pm. This virtual presentation lasts 10-20 minutes, and is followed by a live Q & A with presenters and learning coaches afterwards.

Parent Advisory Council

The Parent Advisory Council serves to provide parent feedback on school policies and procedures at Compass Charter Schools to ensure that they are consistent with its Mission, Vision, and Values.

Members act as a committed group of advisors to the staff and administration, regarding issues that affect the scholars and school of CCS. They provide feedback and insight from the parent's perspective on school process, policies and initiatives to ensure that the needs of parents and their families are included as decisions are made. They also serve as an advisory, not a decision-making body, that makes recommendations, encourages brainstorming and provides opportunities for parent involvement on committees.

School Safety Plan (School Year 2017-18)

While we are a virtual charter school, we do have a School Safety Plan for our Learning Centers. The plan outlines emergency exits, designated meeting places near the building, and locations of emergency kits and fire extinguishers. In addition, we have phone trees created to notify all staff of emergencies and other situations.

Professional Development

In order to cultivate a culture of lifelong learning, Compass Charter Schools provides constant and relevant professional development for its staff. We host a week-long in-person All-Staff Retreat in August. In addition to this school-wide training, we provide each division a professional development budget for staff to utilize to attend conferences and workshops. Staff are encouraged to share what they have learned in either a department, division or all-staff setting once they return from these self-selected opportunities. We strive to enhance our offerings to ensure all staff are equipped with the necessary information to best serve and support our scholars and each other.

Compass Charter Schools of Los Angeles

California Department of Education School Accountability Report Card Reported Using Data from the 2016-17 School Year

By February 1 of each year, every school in California is required by state law to publish a School Accountability Report Card (SARC). The SARC contains information about the condition and performance of each California public school. Under the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) all local educational agencies (LEAs) are required to prepare a Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP), which describes how they intend to meet annual school-specific goals for all pupils, with specific activities to address state and local priorities. Additionally, data reported in an LCAP is to be consistent with data reported in the SARC.

- For more information about SARC requirements, see the California Department of Education (CDE) SARC Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/sa/>.
- For more information about the LCFF or LCAP, see the CDE LCFF Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/fq/aa/lc/>.
- For additional information about the school, parents/guardians and community members should contact the school principal or the district office.

DataQuest

DataQuest is an online data tool located on the CDE DataQuest Web page that contains additional information about this school and comparisons of the school to the district and the county. Specifically, DataQuest is a dynamic system that provides reports for accountability (e.g., test data, enrollment, high school graduates, dropouts, course enrollments, staffing, and data regarding English learners).

Internet Access

Internet access is available at public libraries and other locations that are publicly accessible (e.g., the California State Library). Access to the Internet at libraries and public locations is generally provided on a first-come, first-served basis. Other use restrictions may include the hours of operation, the length of time that a workstation may be used (depending on availability), the types of software programs available on a workstation, and the ability to print documents.

J.J. Lewis, President and CEO

Principal, Compass Charter Schools of Los Angeles

About Our School

We are happy scholars and families choose to make Compass Charter Schools (CCS) their school of choice. I am proud to be the President & CEO of CCS, and look forward working with our faculty and staff to provide a quality independent study program to every scholar we serve. Everyone at CCS is committed to creating a nurturing environment as we work with our scholars to meet their unique learning needs. There are a few vocabulary words that we use which make our school culture unique to many others.

CCS VOCABULARY

Like any school CCS has its own unique culture. To help you understand part of the culture of CCS it is important you understand our use of the following key terms:

Learning Coach

Parents/guardians are known as the "Learning Coach" for their children and they are an integral part of their children's success at CCS. Since we are an independent study virtual school much of the learning is facilitated by the Learning Coach.

Scholar

At CCS we choose to refer to students as "scholar." Scholar is defined as a person who is highly educated or has an aptitude for study; a distinguished academic. We refer to students as scholars because we want to emphasize our commitment to helping every individual be academically successful.

We look forward to being part of our scholars educational journey, and invite you to learn more about us through this School Accountability Report Card and by visiting us online at www.compasscharters.org!

Respectfully,

J.J. Lewis, M.Ed.
President & CEO

School Description and Mission Statement (School Year 2017-18)

In 2012, Compass Charter Schools (CCS) began with a small team of educators in southern California committed to providing a safe, family-centered alternative to the traditional brick and mortar school for scholars throughout the state. While CCS has evolved over the years, the desire to provide excellent educational options has remained strong with our online and home school programs. Over the past five years, we have educated the highly gifted, the bullied, the athlete, the actor, the academically-challenged, the chronically ill, and many other scholars who sought a personalized educational experience outside traditional classroom walls.

Today we work diligently to grow our learning community with families, scholars and staff who value each other and exemplify respect, kindness, teamwork and open communication. We believe in running a school built on integrity and ethical decision-making. We nurture those who have been wounded in some way by the traditional school setting, those not able to find flexible academic programs to fit their needs, and those in need of guidance as they tread on unfamiliar ground as homeschoolers. CCS truly cares about our scholars and is not only dedicated to their academic success but to their social and emotional development.

Whatever the reason behind our scholars' enrollment in Compass Charter Schools, we are here to provide an environment where our scholars can feel safe and inspired to develop into confident, innovative, creative, self-directed scholars. Our scholars find success here at Compass Charter Schools because they have the support of a dedicated staff and their loving families. It is a privilege that each and every day we get to help our scholars charter their educational future. We are loud and proud about making a difference in the lives of our scholars!

Mission Statement

Our mission is to inspire and develop innovative, creative, self-directed learners, one scholar at a time.

Vision Statement

Our vision is to create a collaborative virtual learning community, inspiring scholars to appreciate the ways in which arts and sciences nurture a curiosity for life-long learning, and prepare scholars to take responsibility for their future success.

Core Values

- Achievement
- Communication
- Integrity
- Respect
- Teamwork

Only eligible students may participate in the administration of the CAAs. CAAs items are aligned with alternate achievement standards, which are linked with the Common Core State Standards [CCSS] for students with the most significant cognitive disabilities); and
- The percentage of students who have successfully completed courses that satisfy the requirements for entrance to the University of California and the California State University, or career technical education sequences or programs of study.

Parent Advisory Council

The Parent Advisory Council serves to provide parent feedback on school policies and procedures at Compass Charter Schools to ensure that they are consistent with its Mission, Vision, and Values.

Members act as a committed group of advisors to the staff and administration, regarding issues that affect the scholars and school of CCS. They provide feedback and insight from the parent's perspective on school process, policies and initiatives to ensure that the needs of parents and their families are included as decisions are made. They also serve as an advisory, not a decision-making body, that makes recommendations, encourages brainstorming and provides opportunities for parent involvement on committees.

Professional Development

In order to cultivate a culture of lifelong learning, Compass Charter Schools provides constant and relevant professional development for its staff. We host a week-long in-person All-Staff Retreat in August. In addition to this school-wide training, we provide each division a professional development budget for staff to utilize to attend conferences and workshops. Staff are encouraged to share what they have learned in either a department, division or all-staff setting once they return from these self-selected opportunities. We strive to enhance our offerings to ensure all staff are equipped with the necessary information to best serve and support our scholars and each other.

The Board shall elect from the Board a Chair, Secretary and Treasurer-Auditor of the Authority for terms of not less than one nor more than four years, as provided in the Bylaws, each to hold office until a successor is elected. In the event an officer so elected ceases to be a member of the Board, the resulting vacancy in the office shall be filled at the next regular meeting of the Board held after such vacancy occurs. In the absence or inability of the Chair to act, the Vice Chair, if any, shall act as Chair. The Chair, or in his or her absence the Vice Chair, shall preside at and conduct all meetings of the Board.

2. Other Officers. The Board shall have the power to appoint such other officers as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

X

PARTICIPANTS

1. Each Participant is entitled to the rights and privileges and is subject to the obligations as provided for in this Agreement and the Bylaws. Each Participant Agency shall comply with the rules and policies of the Authority.

2. A new Participant may be accepted upon application to the Authority and upon acceptance by the Board by two-thirds vote, and subject to acceptance by the prospective member of the terms and conditions of participation in the Authority and of the financial arrangements and fund contributions specified by the Board.

3. Each Participant shall be entitled to one voting representative at meetings of the Participants. Each representative shall be designated by appointment by the Participant's governing body. Such governing body may delegate the authority to appoint that Participant's representatives to its chief executive officer or principal.

XI

CONTRIBUTIONS AND OPERATIONS

1. Contributions. The parties agree that each Participant in the workers compensation and other group self-insurance programs shall make payment of contributions for coverage under those programs in which they elect to participate, as well as for the operations of the Authority. The Board shall be authorized and directed to establish the rate of contribution for each Participant, and the time schedule for payment of such contribution. Participants acknowledge that the rates established by Board for coverage under the workers compensation and other group self-insurance and insurance programs may reflect overall changes in coverage, changes in exposure and the past or projected experience of the Participants, as a group during the life of the program, and will not necessarily reflect the experience of an individual Participant during any specific period of participation. Consequently, there can be no assurance that current or former Participants will benefit equally from changes in the workers compensation program or other group self-insurance programs (including, but not limited to changes in eligibility for participation credits, dividends or retrospective rating adjustments or enlargements of coverage grants), nor that the burdens will be equally shared (including, but not limited to rate increases, restrictions on coverage, or unanticipated claims expenses). The timely payment of all required contributions shall be a condition precedent to the continuation of participation by each Participant in the workers compensation and other group self-insurance programs and the Authority. A Participant has no title or interest in the Participant's contributions, whether equitable or otherwise, except as expressly provided in this Agreement.

2. Terms of Participation: Participants joining the Authority and participating in any Authority self-insurance, group purchase or other programs offered by the Authority shall commit to participate in the program for a minimum term which is typically two years unless stated otherwise in a duly adopted Board policy. The Board of the Authority shall establish by separate policy the minimum participation terms for each self-insurance, group purchase or other program offered by the Authority, including Workers Compensation, liability and any other program. Terms of participation shall be counted by the Authority's fiscal year, commencing with July 1 of each year.

3. Computation and Notice of Rates; Assessments. The rates to be used in calculating contributions for each Participant for participation in the workers compensation, general liability and other group self-insurance programs shall be determined by the Board, to the extent practicable, no later than sixty (60) days prior to the commencement of the coverage year and communicated to all current participants as soon as practicable thereafter. However, if at any time the Board determines that the amount contributed for a given year is insufficient, each Participant agrees to promptly pay the Authority the full amount of any assessments levied by the Board, which shall not to exceed two hundred percent (200%) of the annual amount of the Participant's contribution for coverage for any group self-insurance program for that year, as may be required to meet the Authority's expenses associated with the provision of coverage for the Participants for that year and line of coverage. Such assessments shall be allocated and attributed to each Participant based upon a methodology approved by the Board, which may include consideration of payroll, the actual or projected costs incurred by the Authority to provide for program liabilities of the Participant's employees, Participant's compliance with risk management policies, the total actual or projected costs incurred by the Authority as a whole, and other factors. In the event such an assessment, together with any other resources available to the Authority, is insufficient to pay the costs of the Authority for any group self-insurance program during any fiscal year, each Participant contributing to the shortfall shall share the shortfall proportionately, and the Authority shall have no further obligation to pay such costs.

4. Loss Control and Risk Management. Participants in any insurance or self-insurance program agree to follow the loss prevention and risk management recommendations of the Board, and to abide by all conditions, requirements, rules and regulations regarding loss control and risk management which may be promulgated by the Authority, including, but not limited to adopting policies prohibiting sexual harassment.

5. Right to Inspect. Each Participant agrees that the Authority, its Program Administrator, or any of its respective agents, servants, employees or attorneys shall be permitted at any reasonable time to inspect Participant's property and operations and to examine Participant's books, documents and records as necessary in the proper operation of the group self-insurance programs or the Authority, to the maximum extent allowed by law.

6. Audit. Board shall obtain an annual audit of the financial affairs of the Authority, by a certified public accountant at the end of each fiscal year in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A copy of the annual audit report shall be available to each Participant, and shall be filed as required by law. The costs of such audit shall be paid from the funds of the Authority.

7. Binding Nature. Any Governmental Entity which makes application for participation in any of the group self-insurance program of the Authority, and is accepted as a Participant and signs this Agreement, shall thereupon become a party to this Agreement and shall be bound by all the terms and conditions hereof; provided, however, that any charter school or Governmental Entity may be refused admission to the Authority or any program thereof in the sole discretion of Board.

8. Deposit of Funds. Participants shall pay contributions to the Authority for the programs in which they participate and for operations of the Authority. The contributions and income therefrom shall be accumulated to pay the expenses of the programs for which they are determined or assessed. Funds received by Authority as contributions shall be deposited and invested in accordance with laws of the State of California pertaining to the investment of excess funds of charter schools.

9. Contributions by Participants. Without in any way limiting the powers otherwise provided for in this Agreement, the Bylaws, or by statute, the Authority shall have the power and authority to receive, accept and utilize the services of personnel offered by any Participants or its representatives or agents; to receive, accept, and utilize property, real or personal, from any Participant or its agents or representatives; and to receive, accept, expend and disburse funds, contract or otherwise, for purposes consistent with the provisions of this Agreement, which funds may be provided by any Participant, its agents, or representatives.

10. Excess Insurance and Reinsurance. The Authority shall obtain or cause to be obtained such excess insurance or reinsurance as may be necessary and prudent in the judgment of Board. The expense of such excess insurance or reinsurance shall be paid from the Funds of the Authority.

XII

CLAIMS ADMINISTRATION & PAYMENT OF LOSSES

1. General. The principal purpose for the establishment of the Authority is to provide for the orderly presentment, examination, investigation, defense or settlement of claims against the Participants which are covered under group self-insurance and insurance programs of the Authority. It is agreed and understood that the Authority shall use the sums contributed by the Participants for such programs to pay such losses and claims.

2. Presentment of Claims. The services and benefits to be provided by the Authority shall be paid or furnished to or for the benefit of a Participant with respect to a particular incident or claim only if the Authority is notified as required by the applicable coverage agreement.

3. Investigation and Defense. Program Administrator will investigate, or cause to be investigated, all such claims and will attempt to adjust or settle such claims, in accordance with the authority delegated to Program Administrator by Board or the Participant involved. As required, and subject to the provisions of the Coverage Contracts, the Authority, through designated defense counsel will provide legal defense of claims against Participants. The Participant agrees to aid the Authority in such matters and to provide and make available all information and personnel as may be reasonably required in the opinion of Program Administrator to fully investigate and resolve the claim.

It is understood that Board and Program Administrator shall use their discretion in making judgments and assumptions as to the actual value of any claim and making such reserves based on such judgments.

XIII

TERMINATION OR WITHDRAWAL OF PARTICIPANT

1. Withdrawal of Participant. A Participant may terminate its participation in any Authority self-insurance, group purchase, or in other programs of the Authority, or from all programs of the Authority and from the Authority itself, following the minimum terms established in accordance with Article XI, section 2, hereof, by giving 90 days advanced written notice, unless another notice period is adopted by the Board. A withdrawing Participant shall remain liable for any unpaid contribution which shall have accrued under any program or coverage agreement it may have accepted, and for any liability it may have to the Authority itself, through the effective date of termination. Upon its voluntary withdrawal or its termination as a Participant in the Authority or any program of the Authority, a former Participant becomes ineligible to participate in any program of self-insurance of the Authority, except that the rights of a Participant after termination shall be limited to those benefits, such as the defense and indemnity of claims covered under coverage agreements issued by the Authority, which have accrued as of the date of termination as determined by the provisions of the applicable program. A withdrawing or terminating Participant shall have no other rights in any assets of the Authority or of any program of the Authority, whether denominated as equity, surplus, contributions or otherwise, except upon windup of the program or the Authority.

2. Involuntary Termination. A Participant may be terminated by the Authority from any program of the Authority, or from the Authority itself, for:

(i) Failure to comply with any term or condition of this Agreement, a coverage agreement, insurance policy, or other evidence of coverage issued by, through or on behalf of the Authority; or

(ii) With or without cause, upon a 2/3 vote of the members of Board.

3. Adjustment. Whether termination is voluntary or involuntary, a Participant shall remain liable for any unpaid contribution which shall have accrued prior to withdrawal or termination of its participation in any program of the Authority, or the Authority itself. Adjustment for amounts of contribution due to the Authority upon termination shall be made within thirty (30) days of the time at which cancellation is effective.

4. Continued Liability. After a Participant withdraws or terminates, such withdrawing party shall be subject to assessment by the Authority to maintain the solvency of any program of the Authority for any year during which the party was a Participant, unless the coverage agreement otherwise provides.

5. Coverage Disputes. If a Participant disputes a coverage determination, the Participant must appeal to the Board prior to seeking any other remedy.

XIV

PROGRAM ADMINISTRATOR

1. Appointment of Program Administrator. The Board shall appoint a Program Administrator to administer the Authority. The duties of the Program Administrator may be further delegated to a person, association, partnership, corporation, contracted or employed staff, or any other form of entity, subject to such limitations as the Board may specify.

2. Duties of Program Administrator. Program Administrator shall have all such duties and authority as may be delegated to it by Board. Board shall enter into a service agreement or establish policies and procedures which shall specify all of the duties and obligations of the Program Administrator.

XV

ACCOUNTS AND RECORDS

3. Bond. A bond in the amount determined adequate by Board shall be required of all officers and personnel authorized to disburse funds of the Authority. Such bond may be paid for by the Authority.

XVI

1. Appointment. Board shall retain an Actuary.

2. Duties. Actuary shall have all duties and authorities as may be delegated to it by Board in a written contract between Actuary and Board. It is contemplated that the duties of Actuary shall include but not necessarily be limited to the following:

- (a) Recommend contribution rates;
- (b) Review rating structure;
- (c) Monitor claims and analyze loss reserves;
- (d) Monitor participation in all self-insurance and insurance programs;
- (e) Assist Board in financial planning;
- (f) Evaluate reinsurance proposals.

3. Payment. The professional fee paid Actuary for its services shall be an expense of the Authority. The professional fee may be based on a flat sum, an hourly rate, or another method as the parties may specify.

XVII

LEGAL COUNSEL

1. Appointment. Board shall appoint an attorney for the Authority to serve as General Counsel. Board may retain Special Counsel as needed.

2. Payment. The professional fees of General and any Special Counsel for services rendered to the Authority shall be based on a retainer, an hourly rate, or other method as the parties may specify.

XVIII

AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

1. Amendment. Participants may amend this Agreement at any time and from time to time by an instrument in writing approved by a majority vote of Board and executed by a majority of the Participants, provided, however, that:

(a) No amendment shall retroactively reduce the benefits which any Participant is entitled to receive under any Coverage Contract for any coverage year in which a Participant was a fully qualified Participant without their written consent.

(b) Upon approval, by Board, and upon execution of any amendment by a majority of the Participants, the said amendment shall immediately be effective and binding upon all Participants. Any Participant which has failed to sign the amendment shall have the option of withdrawing from the Authority on the first day of the month next following the month in which a majority of the Participants have completed approval of the amendment, or remaining in the Authority and being bound by such amendment.

2. Termination by Agreement. Participants may terminate any program of the Authority or the Authority without a successor program or entity effective as of the end of the then-current coverage year by an instrument in writing approved by a majority vote of Board, executed by a majority of the Participants; provided, however, if any insurance program of the Authority or the Authority shall be so terminated, such termination shall not reduce or terminate the rights, benefits, and obligations of any Participant as to any claim theretofore presented.

3. Termination by Withdrawals. If, at any time, by reason of withdrawals or terminations of Participants, the Actuary shall advise and Board concurs that any program of the Authority is no longer economically feasible or actuarially sound, then such program or programs shall be terminated and dissolved by Board.

4. Disposition of Funds Upon Termination. Upon termination of any program of the Authority, the Authority shall retain in a liquidation fund such sums up to the entire amount held by the Authority for the benefit of the Participants in such program as the Board deems sufficient to pay the remaining obligations of the program. In the alternative, the Authority may insure or reinsure all outstanding liabilities of Participants in such program. Any funds remaining after termination of a program of the Authority, after adequate provision for all liabilities and claims thereunder, shall be distributed to the then-current Participants in the same proportion as each Participant's total contributions paid by that Participant, reduced by the amount of losses and allocated claims expenses paid on behalf of that Participant, bear to all contributions paid by all Participants, reduced by the total losses and allocated claims expenses paid on behalf of all Participants from the inception of that program to its termination. If the Authority insures or reinsures all outstanding liabilities of Participants, any funds remaining in excess of amounts necessary to pay the cost of such insurance or reinsurance shall be distributed to Participants in accordance with this Section, not later than twelve (12) months after payment of the final insurance or reinsurance premium. If the Authority elects to liquidate the liabilities by means of a liquidation fund, any excess funds shall be distributed not later than twenty-five (25) years following the date of termination. Board shall determine such distribution within six months after disposal of the last pending claim or loss covered by the program being terminated.

5. Termination of the Authority. The Authority itself may be terminated and dissolved in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as any program may be terminated; provided that, in addition, the Treasurer-Auditor shall disburse any funds in the treasury as directed by Board. Board is vested with all powers of the Authority for the purpose of winding up and dissolving the business affairs of the Authority.

XIX

CLAIMS, LITIGATION, OR JUDGMENTS AGAINST THE AUTHORITY

1. Defense of Claims. As to any claim or action against the Authority which is based on or arises out of an occurrence involving an officer or employee of the Authority during the course and in the scope of such duties, who is also an officer or employee of a Participant, such claim or action against the Authority will be defended by the Authority to the extent authorized by law. Such claims or actions shall not be considered claims or actions against such Participant solely as a result of employment by the Authority.

2. Claims and Judgment Against the Authority. Claims and judgments against the Authority, its agents, Board members, officers or employees, shall be paid from, or charged to, the appropriate coverages or self-insured funds the Authority has established and/or purchased against such claims, judgments or losses. Such amounts shall be paid from the Authority's own coverage or self-insured funds.

XX

MISCELLANEOUS

1. Binding Nature. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties and supersedes all discussions, negotiations or promises made prior to the execution of this Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the original parties hereto and any substitute or additional parties who are bound hereby in accordance with the provisions hereof, their successors and assigns.

2. Notices. Any notices required by law or this Agreement shall be sufficient if given in writing and deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the Participant at the last address on file with the Authority. Notices to be given to the Authority shall be directed to such address as the Authority shall designate for such purpose.

3. Partial Invalidity. If any one or more of the terms, provisions, promises, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement shall to any extent be judged invalid, unenforceable, void or voidable for any reason whatsoever by a court of competent jurisdiction, each and all of the remaining terms, provisions, promises, covenants and conditions shall not be affected thereby, and shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

4. Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of successors of the parties.

5. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and shall be deemed effective as to all signatories as though signed in one document.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their proper officers thereunto duly authorized, and their official seals to be affixed as of January 29, 2018.

Important Information For Clients Holding Restricted Securities:

Restricted Securities (typically noted as "Restricted" or "RSTD" in the security description) have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and may not be "freely traded." Since restricted securities are subject to certain restrictions which may render them illiquid or less liquid than freely-tradeable shares, there can be no assurance a secondary market exists. While we typically use the value of the registered/unrestricted security of the same issuer and same class for statement (and other) reporting purposes, the price realizable in a sale of the securities may be less than the "Market Value" indicated and could be zero. No attempt has been made to independently value the specific security subject to its restriction. Additionally, inclusion of pricing of these holdings will result in the aggregated value of your portfolio as reflected on this report being overstated by an amount equal to the difference (if any) between the value of the freely-traded underlying security and the actual value of your restricted shares. For additional information on pricing, please see "Market Prices" on the back of your account statement.

Short Debit Fee

Clients engaging in short sales currently incur fees that are based on a fluctuating rate applied daily to the market value of the securities sold short. These fees, which are in addition to interest charged on any debit balances in your account created in connection with your short positions, are based on

- (i) the costs and expenses incurred by J.P. Morgan to settle and maintain those transactions, and
- (ii) service fees in connection with the establishment and/or maintenance of your short positions. Any rate that may be established at the time a short sale settles or established thereafter is not guaranteed or otherwise fixed for any period of time and is subject to change without notice.

Rates may vary depending upon market conditions, including the then-prevailing difficulty in the market of borrowing the particular security. The ease or difficulty of borrowing any particular security, and the related cost, may change rapidly and materially and such change is not predictable. Before engaging in short selling, customers should take into account the fees charged on short sales and the risk that those fees may increase rapidly and materially. Customers who maintain short positions are urged to review their account statements and speak with their J.P. Morgan Securities Representative regularly to monitor the fees being charged. These fees will appear on your account statements.

Rule 5320 - Prohibition Against Trading Ahead of Customer Orders

FINRA Rule 5320 generally prohibits member firms that accept and hold customer orders from trading for their own account at terms that would satisfy customer orders, unless the member immediately thereafter executes customer orders at the same or better price than it traded for its own account. Described below are certain exceptions to the Rule and an explanation of how J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (JPMS) will handle those exceptions. Please note that consistent with regulatory guidance, not-held orders are outside the scope of the Rule.

Large orders (orders of 10,000 or more shares with a total value of $100,000 or more) and orders executed on behalf of institutional accounts are excepted from the requirements of Rule 5320. JPMS will generally work such orders in accordance with customer instructions. While working such orders, JPMS may trade for its own account at prices that would satisfy the customer order.

In addition, if a firm implements and utilizes an effective system of internal controls, Rule 5320 permits the respective separate units to trade independent of one another for purposes of the Rule. JPMS maintains Rule 5320 internal controls known as information barriers between its trading units. The information barriers are designed to prevent one trading unit from having knowledge of customer orders held by a different trading unit. With these barriers in place, one trading unit may hold a customer order while another trading unit, including the market making trading unit, executes an order for a Firm account that would satisfy the customer order. Clients with questions or who object to the manner in which JPMS handles orders should contact their J.P. Morgan Securities representative.

Reporting any Inaccuracy or Discrepancy in your Account:

You are advised to promptly report any inaccuracy or discrepancy in your account to your broker and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (JPMS LLC) at the telephone numbers listed. In order to protect your rights, including any rights under the Securities Investor Protection Act ("SIPA"), any such communications should be reconfirmed in writing to your JP Morgan Representative and JPMS LLC. Compensation Received in Connection With Mutual Fund Transactions

Advisers, distributors or other affiliates of certain mutual funds (which include money market and non-money market funds) may enter into arrangements to pay brokers that distribute their shares for administrative, technological or other services, including marketing and other support services provided to such funds or their affiliates. These fees, commonly referred to as "revenue sharing," are separate from and in addition to any shareholder servicing or distribution fees that a mutual fund pays out of its own assets pursuant to its Rule 12b-1 plan and other expenses which are described in a fund's prospectus fee table. Revenue sharing fees are paid out of the assets of the fund affiliate and not from the fund's assets and, therefore, have no impact on a fund's expense ratio or yield.

J.P. Morgan Securities LLC receives compensation from fund families or their affiliates for providing certain administrative and clearing services. These payments are calculated either based on a percentage of the average dollar value of the fund assets held by J.P. Morgan Securities LLC in customer accounts or based on the number of mutual fund positions in the accounts. These fees may be paid from fund assets or may be subsidized in whole or in part by the advisor, distributor or other affiliates of the fund through revenue sharing. Revenue sharing payments are negotiated separately with each fund family and not all fund families pay the same amount or pay according to the same formula. There is, therefore, a potential conflict of interest in the form of an additional financial incentive to JPMS for making available to customers mutual funds whose affiliates enter into revenue sharing arrangements.

Compensation Received in Connection With Mutual Fund Transactions (contd):

For the administrative and clearing services noted above, J.P. Morgan Securities LLC may receive revenue sharing payments of up to 0.50% per year of the average daily assets of fund shares carried in customers' accounts at J.P. Morgan Securities LLC and/or a rate of up to $21 per year per mutual fund position in each account, as applicable. To establish such arrangements with a fund company, J.P. Morgan Securities LLC either has entered into an agreement directly with the fund company, or J.P. Morgan Securities LLC has entered into an agreement with a service provider which, in turn, has entered into an agreement directly with the fund company. Please note that the actual amount received by J.P. Morgan Securities LLC may be subject to periodic waivers by fund families and such waivers may reduce the actual amount received by J.P. Morgan Securities LLC. Funds whose affiliates do not make such revenue sharing payments to J.P. Morgan Securities LLC are generally not offered or recommended by JPMS, and, in some cases, have higher returns or yields than funds whose affiliates do make revenue sharing payments. Compensation J.P. Morgan Securities LLC receives under these arrangements may be passed on to affiliates of J.P. Morgan Securities LLC.

The prospectus and statement of additional information of mutual funds available through JP Morgan may contain additional information regarding revenue sharing payments made by affiliates of the fund company.

Important Information Regarding Auction Rate Securities (ARS):

ARS are debt or preferred securities with an interest or dividend rate reset periodically in an auction. Although there may be daily, weekly and monthly resets, there is no guarantee that there will be liquidity. If there are not enough bids at an auction to redeem the securities available for sale, the result may be a failed auction. In the event of a failed auction, there is no assurance that a secondary market will develop or that the security will trade at par or any other price reflected on statements. Accordingly, investors should not rely on pricing information appearing in their statements with respect to ARS. Where JPMS was unable to obtain a price from an outside service for a particular ARS, the price column on your statement will indicate "unpriced".

Electronic Funds Transfer Notice

In case of errors or questions about electronic transfers in your brokerage account transmitted through the ACH Network, you must contact Client Services Operations department of J.P. Morgan Securities LLC immediately at telephone number (800) 634-1428 or (347) 643-9953 or write to J.P. Morgan Securities LLC., Attn: Client Services Department, Four Chase Metrotech Center, Brooklyn, NY 11245 if you think your account statement or transaction record is wrong or if you need more information about a transaction listed on your account statement or transaction record. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the first account statement on which the problem or error appeared.

1. Tell JPMS your name and account number.
2. Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
3. Tell JPMS the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell JPMS orally, JPMS may require that you send it your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days.

JPMS will determine whether an error occurred within 10 business days after JPMS hears from you and will correct any error promptly. If JPMS needs more time, however, JPMS may take up to 45 days to investigate your complaint or question. If JPMS decides to do this, JPMS will credit your account within 10 business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes JPMS to complete its investigation. If JPMS determines at the conclusion of the investigation that there was no error, JPMS will charge your account for the credited amount. If JPMS asks you to put your complaint or question in writing and JPMS does not receive it within 10 business days, JPMS may not credit your account.

For errors involving new accounts or foreign-initiated transactions, JPMS may take up to 90 days to investigate your complaint or question. For new accounts, JPMS may take up to 20 business days to credit your account for the amount you think is in error.

JPMS will tell you the results within three business days after completing its investigation. If JPMS decides that there was no error, JPMS will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that JPMS used in its investigation.

Important Notice to Clients Who Are Executive Officers, Directors and Control Owners of U.S. Public Companies

It is important that individual clients who are executive officers, directors or more than 10% owners of U.S. public companies ("Section 16 Affiliates") make their status known to their Financial Advisors so that transactions that require compliance with federal securities and other laws are handled properly and in accordance with the law. Section 16 Affiliates should be aware of the following in particular:

- When you open an account or otherwise establish a business relationship with J.P. Morgan Securities ("JPMS") for investment or other financial services involving your or your family's personal assets or any collective investment account in which you own a beneficial interest, you have an affirmative obligation to disclose to JPMS your status as a Section 16 Affiliate.
- Whenever you have a change in status, such as a change of employment or election to the board of directors of a U.S. public company, such that you become a Section 16 Affiliate, you have an affirmative obligation to notify JPMS of your new status.
- Unless notified otherwise, JPMS will consider that all funds and assets maintained in your or your family's personal accounts are solely your property. Your continued maintenance of an account with JPMS shall constitute your representation that no other person or entity has any interest in your account(s). In addition, you agree that at no time will any funds or assets of the U.S. public company of which you are an affiliate be invested through your account(s).
- Executive officers and directors of U.S. public companies (as well as of non-U.S. public companies whose primary trading market is the United States) are ineligible to purchase equity initial public offerings ("IPOs"), and persons participating in equity IPOs are required to represent in writing that their accounts are not owned 25% or more by such an executive officer or director (including persons materially supported by such officers and directors).

Please note that you are a Section 16 Affiliate if you are required to file Forms 3, 4 or 5 ownership reports with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission with respect to your share holdings in a U.S. public company.

If you are a Section 16 Affiliate, ask your Financial Advisor about pre-trade clearance and post-trade confirmation delivery options for open market purchase and sale transactions through JPMS, so that you can timely report your transactions to the SEC.

Extended Hours Trading Risk Disclosure

Risk of Lower Liquidity. Liquidity refers to the ability of market participants to buy and sell securities. Generally, the more orders that are available in a market, the greater the liquidity. Liquidity is important because with greater liquidity it is easier for investors to buy or sell securities, and as a result, investors are more likely to pay or receive a competitive price for securities purchased or sold. There may be lower liquidity in extended hours trading as compared to regular market hours. As a result, your order may only be partially executed, or not at all.

Risk of Higher Volatility. Volatility refers to the changes in price that securities undergo when trading. Generally, the higher the volatility of a security, the greater its price swings. There may be greater volatility in extended hours trading than in regular market hours. As a result, your order may only be partially executed, or not at all, or you may receive an inferior price in extended hours trading than you would during regular market hours.

Risk of Changing Prices. The prices of securities traded in extended hours trading may not reflect the prices either at the end of regular market hours, or upon the opening the next morning. As a result, you may receive an inferior price in extended hours trading than you would during regular market hours.

Extended Hours Trading Risk Disclosure contd:

Risk of Unlinked Markets. Depending on the extended hours trading system or the time of day, the prices displayed on a particular extended hours trading system may not reflect the prices in other concurrently operating extended hours trading systems dealing in the same securities. Accordingly, you may receive an inferior price in one extended hours trading system than you would in another extended hours trading system.

Risk of News Announcements. Normally, issuers make news announcements that may affect the price of their securities after regular trading hours. Similarly, important financial information is frequently announced outside of regular trading hours. In extended hours trading, these announcements may occur during trading, and if combined with lower liquidity and higher volatility, may cause an exaggerated and unsustainable effect on the price of a security. Risk of Wider Spreads. The spread refers to the difference in price between what you can buy a security for and what you can sell it for. Lower liquidity and higher volatility in extended hours trading may result in wider than normal spreads for a particular security.

Margin Accounts

Securities and other assets in your account are the firm's collateral for any margin loan made to you. If the securities and other assets in your account decline in value, so does the value of the collateral supporting your loan, and, as a result, the firm can take action, such as issue a margin call and/or sell securities or other assets in any of your accounts held with the member, in order to maintain the required equity in the account. It is important that you fully understand the risks involved in trading securities on margin. These risks include the following:

- You can lose more funds than you deposit in the margin account.
- The firm can force the sale of securities or other assets in your account(s).
- The firm can sell your securities or other assets without contacting you.
- You are not entitled to choose which securities or other assets in your account(s) are liquidated or sold to meet a margin call.
- The firm can increase its "house" maintenance margin requirements at any time and is not required to provide you advance written notice.
- You are not entitled to an extension of time on a margin call.

Further, if you have a margin account with us, as permitted by law we may use certain securities in your account for, among other things, settling short sales and lending the securities for short sales, and as a result may receive compensation in connection therewith.

Non Receipt of Checks or Stocks:

Please report any difference or non-receipt of checks or stocks, indicated as delivered to you, to Client Services Operations at 800-634-1428; or write to Client Services Operations at J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, Four Chase Metrotech Center, Brooklyn, N.Y. 11245-0001

NOTICE OF AMENDMENT OF CUSTOMER AGREEMENT(S)

You hereby agree to pay, on demand, all reasonable costs, fees, expenses, liabilities and damages (collectively, "Costs") incurred by J.P. Morgan in connection with (i) enforcing its rights hereunder; (ii) any investigation, litigation or proceeding involving your Account(s) or any property therein; (iii) (A) the use of our access to the Electronic Services (as defined in section 20 below) by you or any person authorized to act on your behalf or (B) the failure by you or any person authorized to act on your behalf to comply with any terms, conditions or limitations applicable to such Electronic Services; (iv) any breach or failure by you to perform any term or provision of this Agreement, any other agreement between you and any J.P. Morgan acting in reliance upon your instructions or the instructions of any other person authorized to act on your behalf. In each case and whether or not demand has been made therefor, you hereby authorize J.P. Morgan to charge your Account(s) for any and all such Costs, provided, however, that in no event shall you be obligated to pay Costs to the extent payment or demand therefor would violate the securities laws or the rules of a securities industry self-regulatory organization.

Margin Account:

If you are a customer with a margin account, you consent to JP Morgan's right (to the extent permitted by applicable law) to use, lend or pledge any securities held by JPMS in your margin account. In certain circumstances, such loans or other use may limit, in whole or in part, your ability to receive dividends directly from the issuing company and/or your right to exercise voting and other attendant rights of ownership with respect to the loaned, sold or pledged securities. Such circumstances include, but are not limited to, loans of securities that you own in your margin account that continue over record dates for voting purposes and ex-dividend dates for dividend distributions. If you do not receive dividends directly from the issuing company, you may receive payments-in-lieu of dividends which could cause you to lose the benefit of the preferential tax treatment accorded to dividends.

Compass Chronicle

Compass Charter Schools | Winter 2018

Happy New Year!

With a new year comes new resolutions. I have two – professionally, to continue to help Compass grow in what I have dubbed our ‘Year of Growth,’ and personally, to find a balance between my academic, personal, and professional lives. What are your resolutions for 2018?

When I think of ‘Year of Growth,’ I am thinking of a few things. Of course, growth in terms of enrollment and letting interested families and future scholars know about the Compass Experience. I am also thinking about growth in terms of what we provide our scholars and learning coaches as part of that Compass Experience. We continue to increase engagement opportunities, both in and out of the classroom. I have visited many Learning Labs and come out impressed with the level of engagement between our scholars. I have also had the opportunity to attend a few field trips and spend time in-person with scholars and parents, and on one field trip to JPL in December, was even joined by Mr. Matt Koblick, our Board of Directors Chair!

There is so much to be proud of at Compass, and so much going on in and out of the classroom. This newsletter is full of important information and exciting updates about Compass Charter Schools’ Online Elementary, Middle and High School. And at our upcoming Parent Town Halls with the CEO (first week of February), I will be sharing several more updates which are meant to continue to enhance the Compass Experience and help our scholars on their educational journey.

As you know, we love your suggestions, as Compass truly is all of our school! We have a virtual suggestion box for scholars, as well as parents, where you can share your input on CCS. We review these monthly with our Parent Advisory Council, Scholar Leadership Council, and Staff Advisory Committee. Feel free to share your suggestion(s) today to help us continue to enhance the educational experience for our scholars.

I hope you enjoy the Winter 2018 issue of our Compass Chronicle, and I look forward to seeing you in a Learning Lab, on a field trip, or at a Coffee with Compass! Forever Loud & Proud!

ENGAGEMENT

Talent Show

Those who attended our November Talent Show loved every minute! All the performances were done virtually so that all scholars were able to participate no matter where they are located! Guests in the session shared that they had so much fun, and there were multiple requests for when we would be holding our next Talent Show. We're excited to announce that we're planning to host our next one this spring. More details to come!

Avery S. - Piano

Avery is nine years old and is in the fourth grade. He is in Mrs. Shumaker's class at Compass. He loves playing the piano and has been playing since he was 5 years old.

Fun Field Trips

One of our learning coaches and two of our scholars who attended our Rubel's Castle field trip shared that they were all astounded by the amount of creativity present at Rubel's Castle! The learning coach particularly enjoyed watching her scholars' amazement as they toured the property. They believe this is a great field trip to continue offering because it's a great example of one following their natural childhood interests, the determination to do so, and how resourceful one can be.

We had a blast during December and January with our community! Scholars, learning coaches, staff, family, and friends have made memories together at Logan's Candies, John's Incredible Pizza, Rubel's Castle, Poverello House, San Diego STEAM Maker Festival, LA Clippers Game, Winter Celebration, NASA Jet Propulsion Lab, Aquarium of the Pacific, Downing Planetarium, La Brea Tar Pits, Spelling Bee, National School Choice Ice Cream Celebration, American Revolutionary Tour at Riley's Farm, Virtual Scholar Workshops, Scholar Clubs, and more!

SPECIAL EDUCATION

The new year is finally here! Our scholars, staff, and families have been working diligently together to create positive outcomes for our scholars. Our team will continue to be consistent, knowledgeable, and supportive professionals, who work in the best interest of our scholars. We will continue to foster positive relationships that build trust between our families and staff. Our team will work collaboratively with scholars, learning coaches and school staff to ensure scholars' success. It's important that your children continue to participate in their related services and join our Special Education teachers for their SAI sessions. If you have any questions about this, please reach out to our team as we are here to support your family.

Sincerely,

Gabi Golan | Special Education Manager
ggolan@compasscharters.org

What's New In Special Education?

Our department is also very excited to implement the Read Naturally program and work with scholars during their virtual SAI sessions. The program works to build fluency and motivation by having scholars read short, non-fiction passages to strengthen comprehension, vocabulary, and automaticity in decoding. If your child has language arts goals in their IEP, please encourage them to attend SAI sessions so that they don't miss out!

Also, we invite our families to visit our website and view a variety of resources that we have collected to help scholars succeed.

Staff Spotlight

This month we are featuring Danielle Hodge, Special Education Instructor at CCS.

CCS: What is your role at CCS and how long have you been part of our school?

Danielle: I am a Special Education Teacher and Case Manager and I have been at Compass for over two years.

CCS: Tell us your “why” for doing what you do here at CCS.

Danielle: The reason why I enjoy being part of Compass is that I enjoy getting our scholars past their level of frustration and helping them feel their own potential for success.

CCS: As an educator, is there a piece of advice you’d like to share with learning coaches or scholars?

Danielle: I have studied neurological networks and have learned that no two brain scans are alike. Therefore, there are several ways to be successful no matter how different our brains may be. It's important for scholars and learning coaches to know that success comes in a variety of ways. We are unique and I bring this understanding into my teaching.

CCS: Share one thing about yourself that very few people know.

Danielle: I am a collector of hobbies most recently photography. I enjoy capturing the “aha” moments on the face of scholar-athletes and my own children during wrestling or varsity cheerleading practices.

CCS: What do you and your family like to do during your free time?

Danielle: My family enjoys supporting each other at sporting events, and we love to ski and be out in nature.

We are also featuring Cami Humpherys, Special Education Advisor at CCS.

CCS: What is your primary role at CCS and how long have you been part of our school?

Cami: I am a Special Education Advisor and I have worked at Compass Charters for almost two years.

CCS: Tell us your “why” for doing what you do here at CCS.

Cami: I love being here at CCS for so many reasons. I feel we provide a unique and diverse environment for our scholars to not only succeed but to thrive. Our teachers are dedicated to helping our scholars reach success in any way they can. We have a variety of courses to choose from in our upper-grade levels so that every scholar can find an elective that speaks to them. We also incorporate the 'fun' that a brick-and-mortar school brings with ways for our scholars to see each other through field trips and clubs. Overall, I feel CCS is the best school for scholars seeking a different environment outside of a brick-and-mortar school. I am blessed to be a part of this family!

CCS: Share one thing about you that very few people know.

Cami: I have a goal to participate in at least three races this year. My husband and I are looking to do a Tough Mudder competition as my first race. (Ack! This is a tough one to start out with, but looks like so much fun!)

CCS: What do you and your family like to do during your free time?

Cami: My family and I enjoy the outdoors - with hiking, boating, camping, etc. We also LOVE amusement parks and crazy roller coasters. My 10-year-old is obsessed and talks about all his

Compass Charter Schools (CCS) Announces Participation in National School Choice Week

THOUSAND OAKS — Compass Charter Schools (CCS) announced today that it will celebrate its scholars, teachers, and staff during National School Choice Week, which will be held from January 21-27, 2018.

CCS is a virtual independent study charter school serving grades TK-12 with a scholar enrollment of over 1,000. In 2012, CCS began with a small team of educators in southern California committed to providing a safe, family-centered alternative to the traditional brick and mortar school for scholars throughout the state. While CCS has evolved over the years, the desire to provide excellent educational options has remained strong with our online and homeschool programs. Over the past five years, we have educated the highly gifted, the bullied, the athlete, the actor, the academically-challenged, the chronically ill, and many other scholars who sought a personalized educational experience outside traditional classroom walls.

"Education is all about choices," shared J.J. Lewis, CCS President & CEO. "CCS believes in choice as well, and has two unique virtual programs for scholars through California to choose from. The Compass Experience is not like the typical online school, and I invite families to learn more about our unique educational experience and consider joining our family, who is committed to scholar success!"

Started in 2011, National School Choice Week (NSCW) is the world's largest annual education-related celebration. The goal of NSCW, which features participation from tens of thousands of schools and organizations, is to shine a positive spotlight on effective education options for children.

During National School Choice Week, schools across America celebrate the challenging, motivating, and effective education they provide to scholars. At the same time, parents use the week to learn more about the education options available to their children, in advance of the upcoming school year.

"We are grateful to have CCS participate in National School Choice Week 2018," said Andrew Campanella, NSCW President. "I salute the scholars, teachers, staff and families of CCS for their commitment to raising awareness about educational opportunity. Today's scholars are tomorrow's leaders, and it's up to everyone to ensure that we prepare children for successful, happy, and productive lives. CCS is working to do that."

National School Choice Week is nonpartisan and nonpolitical, and is not related to any legislative advocacy effort. THOUSAND OAKS — Compass Charter Schools (CCS) announced today that it has been selected to join The Energy Bus for Schools Leadership Journey (EBSLJ) for the 2017-18 school year.

CCS will apply common language and the EBSLJ's seven key principles to guide its school practices and put a focus on positivity within its learning communities.

CCS is a virtual independent study charter school serving grades TK-12 with a scholar enrollment of over 1,000. We are excited to be the first virtual school on this journey and are committed to being active members of The Energy Bus and encouraging leadership and positivity throughout the entire Compass community."

Started in 2016, The EBSLJ was established by former school principal, Niki Spears, and based on the principles of the bestseller The Energy Bus by Jon Gordon. The EBSLJ is on a mission to inspire and develop leaders (scholars and educators) who positively impact schools, families, communities and the world. Based on its seven key principles and unique set of best practices, the EBSLJ provides a transformational, multi-year approach to help schools create and sustain a positive school culture and develop positive school leaders.

"We are excited about our partnership with Compass Charter Schools. After speaking with Mr. Lewis, President & CEO, and listening to the vision and goals of Compass Charter Schools, we knew that he and his team would be a great addition to our family of certified Energy Bus Schools," shared Niki Spears, EBSLJ Co-Founder and Chief Energy Officer. "We believe that true success begins with leadership and are always in search of leaders who embrace positive culture. The success principles from The Energy Bus combined with the challenging, innovative academic platform of Compass Charter Schools will inspire and develop innovative, solution-minded scholars and adults who are prepared to change the world. Online High School | Winter 2018

Happy New Year!

With a new year, often we make new resolutions. As the High School Team starts 2018, our resolution is to continue to put our scholars first and follow our mission to “inspire and develop innovative, creative, self-directed learners, one scholar at a time.” As we look towards the end of semester 1, teachers are continuing to work one on one with scholars, getting them ready for semester finals in Learning Labs and creating individual plans to help scholars finish the semester strong. As a team, we know our great high school scholars will continue to work hard and finish the semester on top!

Looking ahead at semester 2, we will continue to provide our scholars with various opportunities. Our scholars who participate in National Honors Society will be invited to attend an Induction Ceremony and Dinner in early March. Our ninth-grade scholars will be preparing for the Physical Fitness Test, while our eleventh-graders practice and prepare for SBAC testing in the spring. Our science team is continuing to coordinate our in-person a-g science wet labs for semester 2 Biology, Chemistry, and Physics classes. Plus, our seniors, our amazing Class of 2018, are busy preparing for graduation!

The High School team is looking forward to working with our terrific scholars and families and is excited to continue working to ensure success!

Sincerely,

Janae Smith, High School Coordinator

SCHOLAR PROJECTS & ASSIGNMENTS

Take a look at what our scholars have been working on!

Our ninth-grade scholars continue to shine in their AVID elective course. In December, our AVID scholars attended the AVID Leadership Conference at California State University, Long Beach. During the conference, scholars and their families were able to tour the campus and ask questions about college life. After the tour and conference, they were able to cheer on the Long Beach 49ers basketball team during an exciting game.

We have offered in-person wet labs for almost three years. We are one of the leading online programs to pioneer this experience for our scholars so that they can earn a-g science lab credit. Our science teachers are working together to ensure that the quality and integrity of our science program continues to provide these in-person labs. Our final wet lab for semester 1 took place on Friday, January 19. Please be on the lookout for all of the wet lab details for semester 2 coming soon.

Our National Honor Society (NHS) scholars and Mr. Yip, the club advisor, went to Pasadena to help decorate a float for the 129th Tournament of Roses Parade. The scholars were able to get their hands dirty and learn about all of the creative resources that are used to create the beautiful floats each year. NHS will also be participating in various service opportunities this spring including volunteering at the Los Angeles Rescue Mission. The club continues to grow and is accepting new members. If your high school scholar is interested in applying for NHS, please contact Mr. Derek Yip at dyip@compasscharters.org.

Our tenth-grade scholars showed off their writing skills earlier this year in Mrs. Hobson's class!

Vacations

Vacations are amazing, exciting and on vacations you'll make memories you'll never forget. I think people should take vacations every year or maybe even sooner than that. If you're tired, stressed out and/or bored of the same old thing then it's time for a vacation. Whether you're saving up, begging to save up or you already have the money ready, use it to vacation. I believe everyone should vacation. So hop on that airplane or train and see where the adventure takes you!

Now imagine that it's the begging of summertime and kids are just getting out of school. They go home every day after attending summer camp. They do the exact same thing all throughout the summer until it's time for them to return to school. Though summer camp can be fun, you won't get out of it what you could get if you went on vacation. Compare that to a summer beach resort vacation. You go out on the beach on a warm summer evening with the sun setting and lying on the sand as you watch the sun set. That's sounds so great, doesn't it? It doesn't even have to be during summertime. What about a holiday vacation in the mountains? Driving through the snow-covered mountains and going sledding with family and friends. Compare that to grandma's annual Christmas party where the same old thing happens every year. Not that anything is wrong with grandma's Christmas party. It's just that you could have a world of more fun and excitement when you go on vacation.

I know that it may not seem like it, but vacations can have a lot of positive effects on you. Vacations can even decrease depression. The Wisconsin based clinic conducted a study and came to find out that the odds of depression were higher

Effects of the Agricultural Revolution

The Agricultural Revolution changed the world in many ways. It is what changed the world from hunter-gathers to permanent settlements. With these new settlements, they had to develop laws and systems of government to make them stable. As more settlements grew, new religions and cultures developed due to the different locations.

Around 12,000 years ago, humans began to plant food rather than gather while on the move. Settlements had to develop because people needed to be nearby to tend their food. Once people did not need to spend all their time hunting for food, they had time to develop things like cuneiform. Cuneiform, began by Sumerians around 3500 BCE, was the first writing system; the development of a writing system is important because it provides a way for us to read records of the historical times (Mark, 1).

Once humans had created settlements and groups of people combined in one place, disputes began to form. To settle these disagreements, village leaders became a government system (Social, political, 1). Once governments formed, they began to create laws that applied to everyone and everyone would know the rules.

Another result of the agricultural revolution and human settlements is culture and religion. Due to the farming that was done in settlements and the abundance of food available, not all citizens had to provide food for the group. This gave people the ability to specialize in things like pottery, metalwork, and art. The creation of writing and works of art began cultures,

Furthermore, Winston Churchill’s semantics in the speech are complex, yet purposeful. His use of words such as “Parliament,” “War Cabinet,” and “Ministers” helps the reader understand the governmental overtones of this period of time in British history. Churchill is also adept at providing visual images of strife and urgency. He says, “Sir, to form an Administration of this scale and complexity is a serious undertaking in itself, but it must be remembered that we are in the preliminary stage of one of the greatest battles in history.” His request is therefore phrased in a way that creates images of immediate action. Likewise the phrase, “I would say to the House, as I said to those who’ve joined this government: ‘I have nothing to offer but blood, toil, tears and sweat.’” famously gives the audience the feeling of extreme hardship. Churchill’s plan for the British government and his country’s involvement in World War II will involve great work.

L22 A9: Project 5: Rock Candy Lab

Instruction

In this project, you will apply what you have learned about solutions by conducting an experiment that “grows” rock candy. For this lesson, you will complete Part 2 of your project in the lab handout provided in this activity. You will submit your lab handout in Lesson 24.

Note: Be sure to save your lab handout in a safe place. You will add to it throughout the project.

The Chemistry of Flint's Water Crisis

Lead is a naturally occurring element and has been used in paints, additives, and pipes due to its density, malleability, ductility, and durability. Its resistance to corrosion combined with its malleability made it a very popular material for water pipes. It has since been discovered, however, that lead has negative health effects. Lead exposure in children is most drastic, and is linked to learning disabilities, behavioral effects, and delayed puberty. In adults, lead exposure is linked to high blood pressure, decreased kidney function, nerve disorders, and fertility issues.

Key Terms

a redox reaction resulting in damage to materials that cannot be reversed

passivation layer

a layer formed to make the pipes less reactive, preventing corrosion

The Baltimore Sun (TNS)

1 As the student came into my office, I could see that something was wrong. She was pale and her shoulders sagged. "Are you OK?" I asked. "Not really," she said. "I'm graduating in two months and I don't have a job. I've been looking everywhere and networking like crazy, but nothing is panning out for me."

2 Sadly, many soon-to-be graduates feel anxious about their future. They worry about landing a job, especially one that is fulfilling; finding mentors; networking effectively and paying off their student loans.

3 Much of this angst derives from the failure of colleges to prepare their students for the real world. Colleges - and professors like me - must do more to help students succeed after they leave college, both in life and in their careers.

4 We need to help students find out who they really are, what they're passionate about, and how to articulate their life and career goals.

8 One of the most important things students can do to succeed in the real world is to create personal mission statements. I know this from experience. When I was 23, I had completed my bachelor's and master's degrees in engineering and was set to pursue a career designing and building warships for the British Royal Navy. But I felt adrift, confused, unhappy.

6 I realized I needed a plan. I decided to create a mission statement in which I would articulate what I wanted in life. Doing so was challenging but ultimately transformational. It helped me to find the life I wanted to lead, and that life had nothing to do with engineering or warships. My mission statement led me to a career in conservation and filmmaking and, eventually, teaching and writing.

These attributes are sometimes called "soft skills," but that takes away from their rigor and substance. For example, if you misread social cues, can't maintain eye contact in an interview, don't chat comfortably at networking events, or fail to shake hands properly - that is, if you have poor communication skills - you will have a hard time advancing in your career.

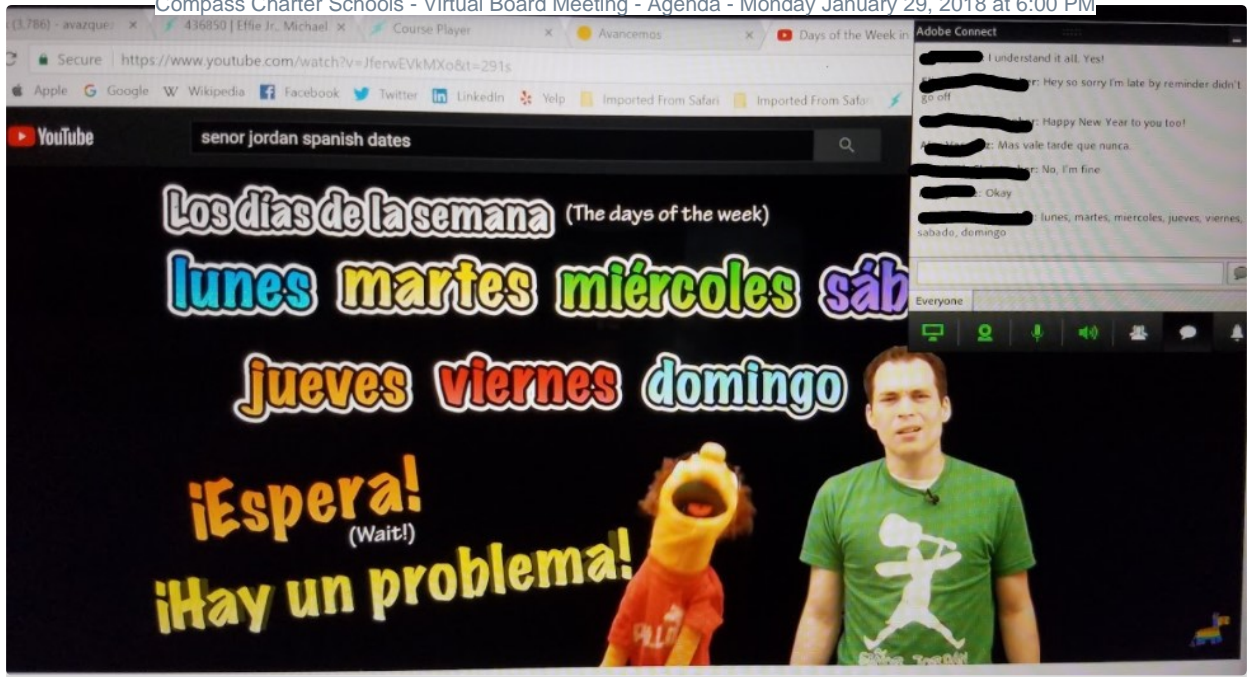

10 Employers want people who can think critically, work in diverse teams, and who can take complex information, come to a conclusion and make a recommendation," former Secretary of Education Arne Duncan told the Wall Street Journal this fall. He worries that students are not graduating from college "career-ready." Two years earlier, the Chronicle of Higher Education stated, "Employers care more about ethics, critical thinking, creative thinking, and common sense ... along with a mindset of lifelong learning and a strong work ethic" than about, for example, an employee's college major.

11 Wall Street executive and author Ben Carpenter made an excellent recommendation in the New York Times, saying, "Colleges need to create, and require for graduation, a course in high quality career training that would begin freshman year and end senior year." Several colleges, such as Connecticut College, are now doing this with much success.

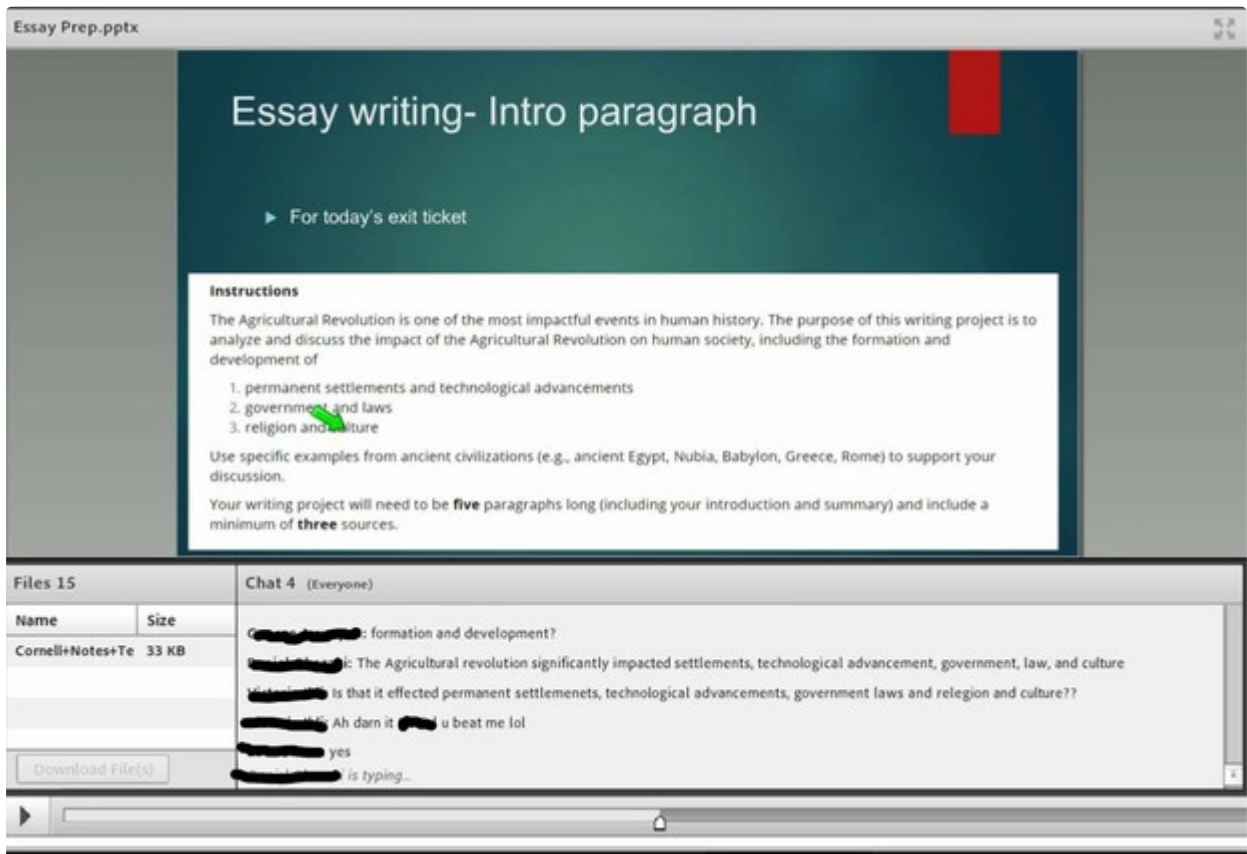

12 One of the most important "soft skills" is the ability to take risks in a scary world. A student who is graduating this May told me, "The biggest hurdle I have to overcome is my constant fear of failing."

13 I often hear this from students. But failure has a stigma doesn't deserve. Failure is an unpleasant, but essential, part of striving and learning. Failing does not mean you are a failure. It means you are trying hard, taking risks and getting out of your

SCHOLAR SPOTLIGHT

This month we're featuring the McHale Family.

Jonathan McHale is a twelfth-grade scholar at CCS.

CCS: We know that often with our scholars each day is different, but what would a typical day look like for you and your scholar?

Learning Coach: John starts his school day around 9:00 in the morning when he logs onto the CCS site and checks into the assignments for the day. He usually concentrates on completing one assignment before moving on to the next. He takes a break for lunch and continues working until mid-afternoon. He attends his weekly Learning Labs and enjoys interacting with the teachers and other scholars.

What has been your greatest joy in schooling your scholar at home?

Learning Coach: My greatest joy in schooling John at home has been the ease in which school work is completed without stress and the flexible schedule that allows our family to have more time together. I also love being in the position to learn new things every day and relearn things that I've forgotten over the years. I feel closer to the teachers and staff, as well as the school administration than I ever felt with those of my previous four children who attended both public and private brick and mortar schools. I have found the CCS teachers to be extremely knowledgeable, professional, personable, empathetic, and willing to take the time to help in every way possible.

Share a challenge that you have experienced as a learning coach and how you have worked to overcome the challenge.

Learning Coach: I can't think of a significant challenge that I have had to overcome. The whole experience has been one of joy and freedom to live life without school regulations strangling and smothering our family.

Why did you decide to school from home with Compass Charter Schools?

Learning Coach: The main reason for choosing Compass Charter Schools is for the flexibility in completing assignments and the range of subjects offered, as well as the ability to pursue topics of interest. One of the highlights that made me choose Compass over other online schools is the Share a piece of advice you'd give to a parent thinking about schooling at home.

Learning Coach: Schooling at home offers a less stressful environment for both scholars and their parents while still being afforded the same opportunities available in brick and mortar schools. I highly recommend schooling at home to any parent wanting the best education for their child.

What do you, your scholar, and the family enjoy doing together during your free time?

Learning Coach: We enjoy going to the movies, visiting museums, hiking, traveling, and just spending time together.

STAFF SPOTLIGHTS

David Spink, a High School Science Teacher at CCS.

CCS: What are your primary job responsibilities, and what is your background in education?

David: My primary role is to instruct and support high school scholars in their science course. I have eight years of teaching experience, four of which have been in an online environment. I also have a master's degree in secondary education.

CCS: What are some of your school-related goals for 2018?

David: I have a strong desire to continue learning as an adult by being a successful educator. I enjoy teaching my knowledge to my scholars. My other goal is to spark inquisitive minds and instill a love of learning in my scholars.

CCS: Do you have any advice for our scholars?

David: My advice to scholars is to be persistent and continue to work hard in everything you do because that will lead you to success.

CCS: Can you share one thing about yourself that very few people know:

David: One thing about myself that most people do not know is that I am an artist when I am not teaching. In high school, I received various awards for portrait drawings that I had created. I enjoy playing games and being active outdoors with my family.

Tracy Shield, an Elective Teacher at CCS.

Ms. Tracy, as her scholars know her, is the CCS HS Elective Instructor. Ms. Tracy has been with Compass for three years. She believes her purpose as an educator "is to be that piece of a child's life puzzle that helps them succeed. Without my part, they may have missed something very necessary to move forward in life." The advice she has for learning coaches is "to just be there. Don't assume that your child is doing vPowered by BoardOnTrack doing. We cannot place adult responsibilities on children. We must surrender to this position and make sure to be as actively involved as they need." One thing that many people do not realize about Ms. Tracy is that she is 50 years old and that her grandmother raised her from birth. When she is not busy supporting scholars in her elective classes, Ms. Tracy surrounds herself with her family and loves to lay around, crack jokes, and laugh.

COUNSELING

Happy New Year to all from the Counseling Team!

This time of year signals the end of Semester 1, and our team has been working tirelessly behind the scenes preparing for Semester 2 with final details and pre-loading courses for scholars. Additionally, while the bulk of college application season is through, we are still deep into financial aid application season as the March 2nd deadline draws near. Our team continues to support scholars with various records and document requests, as well as financial aid application assistance. We are looking forward to hearing from scholars regarding college acceptance letters as they arrive in the spring!

October and November saw a great deal of college, career, and academic activities and presentations that many learning coaches and scholars were able to enjoy by attending the live sessions or receiving the recordings. We will continue to provide these valuable resources via our department presentations and our College and Career Success Cafes. We invite all of our scholars to contact their counselor for more information.

Lastly, in December our department delivered an internal presentation to our school staff about the topic of Suicide Prevention. Considering the prevalence of adolescent suicide in our culture, our goal is to ensure that our staff knows what to do if such a situation presented itself. Our team values the privilege to continue to support our Compass scholars, families, and staff.

As civil rights pioneer Harriet Tubman once said, "Every dream begins with a dreamer. Always remember, you have within you the strength, the patience, and the passion to reach for the stars to change the world." As your school counseling team, we are here to help you explore your dreams and discover how to achieve them. Reach out via phone, text, email, or video conference and talk to us soon. Remember to make every day great!

Counseling News

Congratulations to our scholars Alexia, Helena, and Amber, who were nominated for consideration of the Carson Scholars Fund scholarship. Our entire counseling team worked collaboratively to nominate three scholars, one from each of our schools - Fresno, Los Angeles, and San Diego. Nominations were based on scholar service to their community in addition to their academic excellence (minimum 3.75-grade point average). If awarded, each scholar stands to receive a $1,000 college scholarship for their future studies.

This February, the Counseling Department also looks forward to celebrating the 2018 National School Counseling Week, sponsored by the American School Counselor Association. This special week highlights the tremendous impact school counselors can have in helping scholars achieve school success and plan for a career. Please join us in celebrating the week starting next Monday, February 5 through Friday, February 9.

We highly encourage our families to visit our website and view a variety of helpful college and career preparation resources for scholars.

Family Spotlight

Our journey to California from Texas really began in 2016 after my husband's passing. I suppose you can say we are a military family, with my late husband serving in the U.S. Army many years ago, and my daughter serving as a 1st Class Petty Officer in the U.S. Navy. My daughter's involvement in the military is actually what brought us to California.

Having the flexibility of online schooling has been a great benefit for my son, John McHale, as he explores his post-high school options. John had the opportunity to travel this past November/December to Hawaii to meet the USS Nimitz, a naval supercarrier returning from operations in the middle east. John is considering joining the military as one of his post-high school options, and being able to travel onboard the ship for a week as it returned to the San Diego naval base was a once-in-a-lifetime experience that has aided him in narrowing down a decision as to what he wants to do after he graduates high school in June 2018. He spent the

While onboard the ship, there was no access to Internet or phone for national security reasons which meant 8 days on the ship without the ability to do school work. Staying on top of his school work definitely required some creativity and sacrifices on John's part while on this trip. He completed as much work as he possibly could in the hotel room at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, while waiting for the ship to arrive, as well as working hard to catch up with work upon his return.

I'm so glad we chose Compass Charter Schools! The flexibility in completing assignments and the range of subjects offered, as well as the ability to pursue topics of interest are all reasons that brought us here. One of the highlights that made me choose Compass over other online schools is the opportunity for social interaction with other scholars and parents through the diverse and interesting field trips offered. My family's experience with Compass has been great so far as I feel closer to the teachers, staff, and administration - more than those of my previous 4 children who attended both public and private brick-and-mortar schools. We are happy to be here.

Staff Spotlight

This month we are featuring Mr. Jacob Samples, School Counselor at CCS.

CCS: What are your primary job responsibilities?

Mr. Samples: My responsibilities as a school counselor involve providing support in academic planning and decision making, college and career exploration, and social-emotional wellness for our scholars, families, and faculty.

CCS: Can you share a little bit about your background in education and counseling?

Mr. Samples: I started out years ago as a program leader for an afterschool program called Compass Charter Schools - Virtual Board Meeting - Agenda - Monday January 29, 2018 at 6:00 PM

Think Together while I was completing my Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies at California State at Fullerton. I then earned my Master of Arts in Clinical Psychology from Antioch University at Los Angeles and moved to Palm Springs, CA to work at a community mental health clinic. I went back to school at the University of Redlands to receive my Pupil Personnel Services Credential for School Counseling while working at the Edison Academy for Differentiated Learning in Ontario, CA as a counselor for grades K-8.

CCS: What is your favorite thing about working at CCS?

Mr. Samples: I truly enjoy the challenge of connecting with scholars and families in a virtual setting, and watching them progress through the program. It is gratifying to see scholars gain confidence as they become more comfortable in their independent learning roles at CCS.

CCS: What is your favorite thing to do when you're not working?

Mr. Samples: My passion is theater arts. I love acting when I have time outside of my role as a school counselor. Additionally, I love to spend time with family and friends, and I love to travel and explore new places when I have the time!

Options Program | Winter 2018

Welcome to 2018!

We hope that 2017 ended well for you and that you have had a great start to 2018 so far. Your EFs would love to hear about what their scholars were up to over Winter Break, so please do share!

This edition of the Options Newsletter is chock-full of examples of the dedication and hard work that our learning coaches and scholars have put into the school year so far. So many have exemplified our CCS Core Values of achievement, respect, teamwork, integrity, and communication. We have seen families work as a team to serve food to the needy, learning coaches who support other homeschooling parents regularly through communication on social media, and scholars who persevere to achieve knowledge and skills in spite of learning disabilities or illness.

Finally, as the end of the fall semester approaches, we encourage you and your scholar(s) to reflect on the semester and the learning that has taken place. What was their favorite learning activity? What "aha" moments did they have? What topics might they still be struggling with? What did they get particularly excited about? This may also be the time to change things up a bit if you are finding yourselves in a bit of a homeschooling funk, as we all tend to do every once in a while. Do your scholars need a new daily routine? Will you change up the types of things you used your fall funds on for the spring semester -- different classes / new reading books / interesting supplements to your curriculum? Is it time to map out a schedule for the week for your scholars, or perhaps change the one you currently use? Your EFs are ready and willing to help in any of these areas!

Wishing you a fantastic 2018!

WHAT'S NEW IN OPTIONS?

Since our last newsletter, we have added a couple of great opportunities for both parents and scholars to get involved. Our remarkable EF Melissa Collier now hosts monthly Options Hangouts, giving the Options scholars a social forum to connect and share about various topics. It has been fun to see them share about their favorite field trips and pets so far. If you have a suggestion for a future Options Hangout session, I encourage you to email the suggestion to Melissa.

In early December, several learning coaches and EFs came together virtually for an Options Roundtable to chat about curriculum. The Roundtable proved to be a great exchange among learning coaches and EFs alike, as we all gleaned something from those who shared their experiences with and likes/dislikes of several curriculum options. One parent shared, "It was very helpful to learn the different options we have available for our kids from parents who have tried these programs." Another expressed, "I feel like I may need to change things up a bit mid-year, so this was perfect timing." If you missed this Roundtable, I encourage you to catch the next one. If you have a topic for a future Roundtable discussion that uniquely applies to our Options scholars, please send it our way!

CELEBRATING OUR SCHOLARS

Our first-grade scholar, Michael N. is discovering different types of fruits and vegetables and how they grow. Here he is exploring how these brussel sprouts grow on a stalk. Both the stalk and brussel sprouts are edible, but the stalk requires longer cooking. He had never seen a vegetable grow like this and found it quite fascinating!

In this interactive worksample, Jax M. demonstrated his knowledge of a cell. According to his mom, Lara, "We did diagrams of the cell in our science notebooks and then got out play dough and replicated the parts we learned about into a 3D model. Then Jax and his brother tested themselves by making a video and seeing if they could name all the parts! It was a great hands-on way to remember the shapes and names of the parts of the human cell." This was a great work sample showing hands-on, engaging, and creative learning!

Second-grade scholar, Carlos M. has been working on different types of experiments in science. He recently completed a celery stick experiment where he put celery in water and then added food coloring. He was super excited to add the red food coloring and waited patiently to see

Davin is a first-grade scholar at our Orange County Learning Center, and he is also part of our Wednesday Voyagers' program through Biola University. Davin created this artistic representation of the book The Family Under the Bridge after they read and discussed it together in the Voyagers' Language Arts class. His mom said, "The project was to explain the book by illustrating a poster with a favorite part, sad or disappointing part, place you might want to visit, favorite character, etc. Davin illustrated the part at the end of the book when the main character, Armond, a homeless man, found a home and job for both himself and the family he grew to care for. It was a very proud moment for him."

Kaelyn is taking an art class at KidsArt Rancho Cucamonga. She has a passion for art, which is demonstrated in this drawing of a Japanese cartoon character.

Elias built this diorama to represent the 2nd Battle of Bull Run. He learned that the battle was also called the Battle of Manassas and that three generals fought there.

The MacLeish siblings spent time serving together at a local soup kitchen.

CURRICULUM UPDATES

It's the start of a new year, and new happenings in the Vendor Department! We have recently added three new vendors to our always-growing list of curriculum options for our homeschool families. Our new vendors include:

Henry Doktorski - Chess teacher located in the Tomacola area

In addition, Little Passports is offering new subscriptions with the start of the new year. Take a look at their flyer to see if any of these subscriptions might suit the needs of your scholar.

Lastly, a couple of vendors have let us know that they adjusted their pricing. Math-U-See will offer their materials according to this new price list, and Kidnastics Gymnastics & Cheer in Los Alamitos has new prices for some of their classes as well.

FAMILY SPOTLIGHTS

The Moresi Family

This month we would be pleased to introduce you to the Moresi family! Peter, Jen, James and Natalie live in Thousand Oaks, and this is their first year at CCS, although definitely not their first year homeschooling! Jen took some time to tell us all about James and some of his exciting recent academic accomplishments.

CCS: Tell us about your family:

Learning Coach: Well, our family consists of my husband and myself, James, who is in second grade, and my step-daughter, Natale, who is in 4th grade. I am currently homeschooling James, and this is our first year with CCS. So far we are really happy with our choice!

CCS: Why did you decide to enroll with Compass Charter Schools?

Learning Coach: For the past few years I filed a PSA, but we decided that a charter school would better fit our needs as James is getting older and more involved in extracurricular activities and enrichment classes. I researched several of the charter schools, and I really liked the online aspect of Compass. I also felt that the parents were given a lot of freedom to make the appropriate choices for their scholars. I was already friends with my EF, Lindsey Chalco-Paz, and so joining Compass was an easy fit for us!

CCS: Can you tell us a little bit about what your homeschool life is like?

Learning Coach: James currently is really enjoying taking enrichment classes. He takes classes several days a week at Huckleberry Center for Creative Learning in Simi Valley, and he also takes classes at the homeschool program through Conejo Valley Parks and Recreation. He really enjoys science and art classes and is enrolled to start a film class with Conejo this month. We also are active participants in our local homeschool park day.

CCS: What are some of James' hobbies? What do you enjoy doing as a family?

Learning Coach: James is very into video games, so he enjoys spending time doing that. He also loves drawing -- he is a great artist. Our family loves to do the drawing tutorials on Art for Kids Hub together. Since we are a blended family, we really cherish the time that we get to spend with Natalie, James' sister. She is with us every other weekend, and James really looks forward to that. They love to play outside, ride scooters, and be together!

CCS: Can you tell me about a time that James achieved something great?

Learning Coach: Well, academically, when he started to read chapter books independently, we were all pretty thrilled! It seemed to happen overnight, sometime last year, and it was a big breakthrough for him. He is an avid reader now and loves to read the Diary of a Wimpy Kid and Captain Underpants series.

The Imlach Family

We would also like to introduce you to the Imlach family. Denae and Chloe Imlach are in the second and third grades, respectively. The Imlach family lives in Anaheim, and this is their first year at CCS. Stacey shared with us a little about their family and homeschooling adventure.

CCS: We know that often with our scholars that each day is different, but what would a typical day look like for you and your scholar?

Learning Coach: We start our morning routine with coffee/tea and some literature to read. I (Mom) read aloud while breakfast is being eaten, and we discuss what is being read. We clean up, do small light chores, get ready for the day, and come back to the table for some journal writing/devotion time and math work. After our math lesson, we do some active stretching or walking around our apartment complex. Sometimes the girls start laundry and prep snacks while I am getting our next subject in order. At this point of our day, we review things that we are learning in class at the Orange County Learning Center. We do a creative writing lesson, sometimes prompted by a topic discussed in our readings earlier or just using our imaginations. We utilize our local library and bring home books that encourage the things that the girls are most interested in. The afternoons are usually filled with park play dates or letting the apartment kids come over to play. The girls help with dinner and dishes, and I encourage more reading and board game playing in the evenings. Some of our favorites are Sequence, Clue, Blokus and Connect 4. We end our day with an occasional tv episode, art/crafts and more books!

CCS: What has been your greatest joy in schooling your scholar at home?

Learning Coach: We all agree that we love the flexibility that we have and getting to do school in the parks.

CCS: Share a challenge that you have experienced as a learning coach and how you have worked to overcome the challenge.

Learning Coach: Learning to communicate why we homeschool to others has been our biggest challenge. We moved our family from Oregon to Anaheim almost 5 years ago. It took our family two years to find other homeschool families in this area that we could come alongside. Finding other like-minded parents and kids really helped to bring a balance to that question from others. I had written our family homeschool mission statement as we started this journey, but it was hard to see the girls not have a confident response to others in regards to not going to the same school as all the other apartment kids. Being part of the Compass family has helped us form in them an identity of how to be great life learners and giving an assurance of how they belong to something important.

CCS: Why did you decide to school from home with Compass Charter Schools?

Learning Coach: With my husband working in retail and other time investments within the community we have always believed that homeschool would give us the flexibility that we needed. Compass is our third Charter School program and we found it by following our EF! I am so grateful for their friendship and guidance. When my girls make good connections with others, it is only natural to want to keep them in those same circles.

CCS: Can you share a piece of advice you'd give to a parent thinking about taking their child out of school to school at home?

Learning Coach: Our family motto is to always be humble, aggressive learners. Recognize that every day is new, you will make mistakes and you won't have all the answers but be gracious to yourself. Enjoy learning alongside your kids.

CCS: What do you, your scholar and the family enjoy doing together during your free time?

Learning Coach: The girls are part of GRDC Tap Dance Company. It is a service to the community. We volunteer our time and practice several hours each week to perform in Assisted Living Homes for those elderly who are unable to attend functions outside of the facility. We love nature hikes and fishing together and recently built a "Tinker Bench," a specific space to allow the girls to be creative by building small wood projects and using recyclables to invent amazing creations! The girls love building forts out of everything, and we bought them pocket microscopes for Christmas, which we are really having fun with. We have several families living in our apartment complex and in the surrounding vicinity that are on refugee status, and we are always helping as English conversation partners, driving them to places and joining in the many cultural opportunities that are all around us.

STAFF SPOTLIGHT

Michelle Vreenman, Educational Facilitator

CCS: What is your name, and can you share a bit about yourself/family?

Michelle: My name is Michelle Vreeman. My husband, Eric, and I just celebrated our 20th anniversary last month. We met as sophomores in high school, went to colleges together, and got married after we got our teaching jobs.

We are proud parents of two amazingly, wonderful kids, Kate (11) and Joseph (3). They are kind and loving kids and our greatest joy! We are also a homeschooling family. Of course, they would give me a hard time if we left out our three furry family members which include Hank the Vizsla, Daisy the Terrier, and River the Pub/Pomeranian/Chihuahua mix.

CCS: What is one of your favorite parts about working at CCS?

Michelle: I love working with each of the families! I love to see their approach to educating their scholars and how excited they are about their work. I am also so thankful to be working with such an amazing team of supportive and knowledgeable educators. Everyone is always so ready and willing to help out and work together.

CCS: What is your favorite thing to do when you are not working?

Michelle: We enjoy Jeeping in Utah, traveling, reading, cooking, kayaking, and hiking as much as we can.

CCS: What is (or was) your favorite subject to study?

Michelle: My favorite subjects to study, and teach, are science and social studies.

CCS: Do you have any advice for scholars?

Michelle: My advice for scholars would be to follow their passion. If they love a subject or activity, dive in and see where that passion can take them!

CCS: What is your background in education?

Michelle: I have been in education for about 20 years. Overall, I've had so many varied and wonderful experiences in education and feel so fortunate to have worked with so many different families and scholars over the years.

I started off teaching High School US History, Government, Economics, and Sports/PE. I was also the Head Volleyball Coach and the school's Yearbook Advisor during these years. Then I worked as an elementary classroom teacher. I primarily taught fourth grade but also had a 2/3 combination class.

I then took a break and stayed home with my new daughter for the next three years. At this point, I began working from home facilitating courses with an online University as an Online Faculty Instructor and also started teaching high school US History online with a charter school. During this time, I also began homeschooling.

I am now happily working for Compass as an Educational Facilitator and look forward to working with Compass families for many years to come!

CCS: How can Options families contact you if needed?

Michelle: Through phone or text at (805) 358-8666 or by email at mvreeman@compasscharters.org

Susan De La Pena, Educational Facilitator

CCS: What is your name and can you share a bit about yourself?

Susan: My name is Susan De La Peña. I live in Clovis, California but grew up in Norco with the horses. I have been married for 26 years and have six children, two girls, and four boys. The girls are the oldest and youngest and the boys are sandwiched in between. My two oldest children go to college in Southern California. One is at the University of Redlands and will graduate in April - then off to grad school. The other is at Biola University and should graduate next year. I have 2 boys in high school (11th and 9th), one in middle school (7th), and a daughter in 2nd grade. We also have a scholar visiting from China. My family and I are very involved at our church. I work in the nursery and toddler room there. You just can't get me away from kids! My dream is to one day have a small farm.

CCS: What is one of your favorite parts about working at CCS?

Susan: I love the sense of family and team we have here at CCS. It makes working here enjoyable, and it helps you to feel like you belong and are a part of something bigger. It is also great to be able to interact with the scholars and their families. I enjoy getting to learn about them and what they like.

CCS: What is your favorite thing to do when you are not working?

Susan: Well, since I don't have a lot of spare time, I mostly spend time with my family when I am not working.

CCS: How can Options families contact you if needed?

Susan: I am available through email at sdelapena@compasscharters.org, or by phone at 805-807-5718. My 'door' is open!

CCS: What is (or was) your favorite subject to study?

Susan: I LOVE science, still do. I try and keep up on what is going on in the world of science through reading.

CCS: Do you have any advice for sch

Susan: It is important for you to do your work and study, but even more important is to develop a love for learning and learn HOW to learn. Then you will always be a 'scholar' of the world around you.

CCS: What is your background in education?

Susan: I received my degree from CSU Fresno. I taught in Fresno Unified as a long-term substitute before I moved to Texas. In Texas, I taught second grade for a bit. After we moved back to California, I would sub occasionally, but mostly was a mom. Six years ago, I started working with high school scholars in an online setting, helping out in the counseling department. I moved back into teaching this school year.

COUNSELING

Happy New Year to all from the Counseling Team!

This time of year signals the end of Semester 1, and our team has been working tirelessly behind the scenes preparing for Semester 2 with final details and pre-loading courses for scholars. Additionally, while the bulk of college application season is through, we are still deep into financial aid application season as the March 2nd deadline draws near. Our team continues to support scholars with various records and document requests, as well as financial aid application assistance. We are looking forward to hearing from scholars regarding college acceptance letters as they arrive in the spring!

October and November saw a great deal of college, career, and academic activities and presentations that many learning coaches and scholars were able to enjoy by attending the live sessions or receiving the recordings. We will continue to provide these valuable resources via our department presentations and our College and Career Success Cafes. We invite all of our scholars to contact their counselor for more information.

Lastly, in December our department delivered an internal presentation to our school staff about the topic of Suicide Prevention. Considering the prevalence of adolescent suicide in our culture, our goal is to ensure that our staff knows what to do if such a situation presented itself. Our team values the privilege to continue to support our Compass scholars, families, and staff.

As civil rights pioneer Harriet Tubman once said, "Every dream begins with a dreamer. Always remember, you have within you the strength, the patience, and the passion to reach for the stars to change the world." As your school counseling team, we are here to help you explore your dreams and discover how to achieve them. Reach out via phone, text, email, or video conference and talk to us soon. Remember to make every day great!

Counseling News

Congratulations to our scholars Alexia, Helena, and Amber, who were nominated for consideration of the Carson Scholars Fund scholarship. Our entire counseling team worked collaboratively to nominate three scholars, one from each of our schools - Fresno, Los Angeles, and San Diego. Nominations were based on scholar service to their community in addition to their academic excellence (minimum 3.75-grade point average). If awarded, each scholar stands to receive a $1,000 college scholarship for their future studies.

This February, the Counseling Department also looks forward to celebrating the 2018 National School Counseling Week, sponsored by the American School Counselor Association. This special week highlights the tremendous impact school counselors can have in helping scholars achieve school success and plan for a career. Please join us in celebrating the week starting next Monday, February 5 through Friday, February 9.

We highly encourage our families to visit our website and view a variety of helpful college and career preparation resources for scholars.

Family Spotlight

Our journey to California from Texas really began in 2016 after my husband's passing. I suppose you can say we are a military family, with my late husband serving in the U.S. Army many years ago, and my daughter serving as a 1st Class Petty Officer in the U.S. Navy. My daughter's involvement in the military is actually what brought us to California.

Having the flexibility of online schooling has been a great benefit for my son, John McHale, as he explores his post-high school options. John had the opportunity to travel this past November/December to Hawaii to meet the USS Nimitz, a naval supercarrier returning from operations in the middle east. John is considering joining the military as one of his post-high school options, and being able to travel onboard the ship for a week as it returned to the San Diego naval base was a once-in-a-lifetime experience that has aided him in narrowing down a decision as to what he wants to do after he graduates high school in June 2018. He spent the

While onboard the ship, there was no access to Internet or phone for national security reasons which meant 8 days on the ship without the ability to do school work. Staying on top of his school work definitely required some creativity and sacrifices on John's part while on this trip. He completed as much work as he possibly could in the hotel room at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, while waiting for the ship to arrive, as well as working hard to catch up with work upon his return.

I'm so glad we chose Compass Charter Schools! The flexibility in completing assignments and the range of subjects offered, as well as the ability to pursue topics of interest are all reasons that brought us here. One of the highlights that made me choose Compass over other online schools is the opportunity for social interaction with other scholars and parents through the diverse and interesting field trips offered. My family's experience with Compass has been great so far as I feel closer to the teachers, staff, and administration - more than those of my previous 4 children who attended both public and private brick-and-mortar schools. We are happy to be here.

Staff Spotlight

This month we are featuring Mr. Jacob Samples, School Counselor at CCS.

CCS: What are your primary job responsibilities?

Mr. Samples: My responsibilities as a school counselor involve providing support in academic planning and decision making, college and career exploration, and social-emotional wellness for our scholars, families, and faculty.

CCS: Can you share a little bit about your background in education and counseling?

Mr. Samples: I started out years ago as a program leader for an afterschool program called Compass Charter Schools - Virtual Board Meeting - Agenda - Monday January 29, 2018 at 6:00 PM

Think Together while I was completing my Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies at California State at Fullerton. I then earned my Master of Arts in Clinical Psychology from Antioch University at Los Angeles and moved to Palm Springs, CA to work at a community mental health clinic. I went back to school at the University of Redlands to receive my Pupil Personnel Services Credential for School Counseling while working at the Edison Academy for Differentiated Learning in Ontario, CA as a counselor for grades K-8.

CCS: What is your favorite thing about working at CCS?

Mr. Samples: I truly enjoy the challenge of connecting with scholars and families in a virtual setting, and watching them progress through the program. It is gratifying to see scholars gain confidence as they become more comfortable in their independent learning roles at CCS.

CCS: What is your favorite thing to do when you're not working?

Mr. Samples: My passion is theater arts. I love acting when I have time outside of my role as a school counselor. Additionally, I love to spend time with family and friends, and I love to travel and explore new places when I have the time!

Online Middle School | Winter 2018

Happy New Year CCS Middle School Scholars and Families!

As I begin 2018, I like to reflect on the past to prepare me for a better future. There were many great and exciting changes that happened in 2017, including the transition to our award-winning StrongMind curriculum and SIS. Scholars have done a fantastic job managing the transition. They have created amazing projects in their classes, many of which you will see in this newsletter. Scholars have participated in hands-on learning experiences in Learning Labs, something we are very proud to offer in an online setting. Scholars are reading, writing, and using critical thinking skills on a daily basis. Very exciting things happened in 2017 and I am excited to share some of them with you in this newsletter. Be sure to take a look at all of the great work samples we have to share!

As we look forward into 2018, CCS has many impressive things planned for scholars and families, including new elective courses starting on Thursday, February 1, SBAC and i-Ready diagnostics to see how far scholars have come this year, and several field trips and engagement experiences. Be sure to check the weekly Monday Morning Updates to locate everything that is going on at Compass! Happy 2018!

HANDS-ON LABS & SCHOLAR PROJECTS

Science Learning Labs

On Halloween 8th grade scholars conducted three spooky Chemistry labs: Fluff Slime, Glow Sticks, and Peroxide Yeast. After class, they stayed for a costume and pumpkin decorating contest.

The seventh-grade science scholars were challenged to build earthquake-resistant houses. After implementing the scientific method to try and modify designs, seventh-graders tested their house models to see if they could withstand a quake on a Jell-O foundation. Scholar Alexia C. and her family accepted the Quake Challenge!

Growth Mindset

Growth Mindset continues in eighth-grade Study Skills, where scholars are learning about how the brain works and develops, just like our muscles. Scholars created projects, such as poems, advertisements, or comics, showing what they learned. Here are some examples.

English Language Arts

In eighth-grade English Language Arts (ELA), scholars learned about internet safety and researched how to protect themselves online. They were required to create a brochure and complete an oral presentation. Here is an example by scholar, Kayla C.

In sixth and seventh-grade ELA, scholars honed their reading and writing skills by using writing in various genres. They wrote news reports, how-to articles, and advertisements.

Online gaming sensation Roblox is becoming more and more popular with kids. Do you ever wish that you could play a fun and kid-friendly online game that powers your imagination and lets you interact with hundreds of other kids? Well, look no further! The popular online game, called Roblox, is now fun to play for ages six and up. Kids can simply sign up with their parents' approval to create a free Roblox account. You can always choose from different subscription models later. And parents need not worry because Roblox is fully monitored and always restricts chat room conversations containing any ages, phone numbers, and usage of bad language. Here is what famous online YouTuber, Denis, had to say about Roblox: 'Roblox is an online virtual playground and workshop, where kids of all ages can safely interact, create, have fun, and learn. It's unique in that practically everything on Roblox is designed and constructed by members of the community.' An example of being able to be creative is the ability to design your own games by making them in the Roblox Studio. If you ever wondered how long Roblox has been around, it was created in 2006. Roblox has made a lot of changes since then especially with the addition of more kid-friendly YouTubers who are promoting the game by playing it and having a large kid audience subscribing to them. But be careful! Roblox is highly addictive and if you do not watch out you will find yourself playing for way too many hours! So, go ahead and give Roblox a try today.

Reading & Writing are EVERYWHERE!

Hello Everyone my name is Helena Assis I'm a 6th grade scholar at Compass Charter School. For my how to video I will be demonstrating how to do your makeup. I hope you find this tutorial helpful when following the steps provided to do your makeup. Let's get on with the tutorial. 1. Make sure to choose a well-lit area so that you can see how everything looks in the process. I prefer natural lighting, although my makeup vanity isn't right in front of my window, I still have some natural lighting and a lamp right in front of me. 2. Make sure your face is clean. This will help you with not only your skin, but your health and make your make-up application easier. 3. Gather all of your make-up supplies prior to applying your makeup, such as (brushes, applicational products, primer, foundation, concealer, powder, bronzer, highlighter, blush, eyebrow products, false eyelashes, mascara, eyeliner, eyeshadow, lipstick, and setting spray). I suggest that you go to a Sephora to purchase your supplies, but it is entirely up to you. Find a brand that works for you and build your collection. 4. Grab your primer and apply it to your face with your hands or whatever works for you but make sure your hands are clean if you apply it with your hands. 5. Next, get your foundation and put some on the back of your hand and grab the end of your brush and blend in the foundation to your face evenly. This is the method that works for me. If you find another method that works better for you then do it. That's great.

Owning a dog can have many benefits and downsides. But raising them and properly maintaining them isn't such an easy task, especially for a dog owner. We will be discussing about the pros and cons of dog ownership. Dogs require lots of attention, especially when they are puppies. Time commitment is very important; if you don't give enough attention to a dog, they wouldn't be happy at all. If you don't give them their daily exercise or only make him do their business in the backyard or at the corner of the street, it would be harder in owning a dog. Especially a big dog. Dogs need to have a run, enjoy their freedom, and detect natural surroundings with their nose. When you have a puppy, it's like having a 'toddler who will never grow up.' They rely on you for anything at all. As long as you give them their requirements, your dog will be happy! But if you do not have a backyard, or live near an outdoor area like a park, forest, or anything, then do not consider in getting a dog. Owning a dog isn't easy. If you are considering in adopting a dog, do your homework. Every dog varies individually in breeds and comes in different personalities. To see which breed is right for you, do all your research and evaluate which breed is the right for you.

Social Studies Projects

In 8th grade SS, scholars wrote biographies and created Facebook pages for historical figures. Here is an example by Aurora K, another example by Kayla C, and one final example by Matthew J.

In seventh-grade Social Studies, scholars are applying their understanding of Japanese culture in the Middle Ages to analyze a Close Reading of an excerpt of "47 Ronin". Check out some of our scholars' writing, which demonstrates a better understanding of the story than the Keanu Reeves movie!

In sixth-grade Social Studies, scholars used Google maps along with a writing assignment to visualize the journey down the Silk Road. Scholars all added pictures and connected the routes they would take to trade goods back around 206-220 A.D. Here are examples of the writing sample and map from scholar, Helena A.

The Silk Road

As I travel along the Silk Road, my senses have come alive with the new smells, sights and sounds. While the journey may be long, it is a beautiful experience. An experience that I am happy to have been a part of. There are so many beautiful objects that I cannot wait to tell you about.

The first items that I have been able to see here on my journey through the Silk Road are the many article that have been made from silk. There are shirts, ties, formal dresses and even items for the home. The beautiful, bright colors are so wonderful to look at. I love the softness of the fabric and would love to own something made of silk. Actually, there are many things that I would love to own.

The second objects that I love to see are all of the precious goods such as amber and gold. These stones are so rare and beautiful and as we pass through the road, we have many people who are interested in trading for them. There are some countries who buy more than they sell, such as Italy.

Lastly, there are many spices that you can smell in the air. The fragrance of nutmeg, cinnamon and ginger are some of the most potent. Their scents are so heavenly as we follow along the road. I'm certain that we could use many of these in our recipes at home.

In conclusion, I have had an incredible time on this amazing journey. I have had the pleasure of meeting many different cultures and have learned about many items that I have either never heard of, or at least, have never seen. I am so thankful for this experience, and so happy to share it with you.

FAMILY SPOTLIGHTS

This month we're featuring the Millaris Family

Amy Millaris, a learning coach, and her scholar Audrey share their experience at CCS.

CCS: What grade is your scholar in and how long have you been part of Compass Charter Schools?

Amy: My scholar Audrey is in sixth-grade and we have been part of CCS for three years.

CCS: Can you tell us a little bit about your family?

Audrey: My dad works for American Medical Response, running shops for ambulances and ensuring they are stocked with supplies that the EMTs and paramedics need when making emergency calls. He is also on the FEMA response team and has been called to work during national crises such as Hurricane Katrina and Hurricane Harvey. I have two older brothers, James, who is on a Cyclocross competition team, which is a combination of downhill and mountain biking. James also participated in MATE, an underwater rover competition, and won medals for his rover design. My other brother, Timothy, is the captain of his high school basketball team and is a great athlete. As for me, I train at a professional ballet company called Bayer Ballet Company, which is a competitive ballet program that is preparing me to become a professional ballerina.

CCS: What is your favorite school subject(s)?

Audrey: My favorite subject is math.

CCS: What do you enjoy most about being part of Compass Charter Schools?

Audrey: My favorite thing about CCS is that it gives me the flexibility to do extracurricular activities like ballet and spend time with my family.

CCS: What do you like to do outside of school? Do you have any hobbies?

Audrey: I am an entrepreneur. I have my own business where I make slime and sell it in my mom's laundromat and to my friends at ballet school. I have a laboratory where I test out different recipes, colors, and seasonal slime, depending on the time of year. I also plan and manage all of the finances of the company to ensure that I make good financial decisions and a profit.

CCS: What is one fun fact that you would like everyone at CCS to know about you?

Audrey: I am an inventor and I like to create vending machines from scratch, including all of the different mechanisms that make the machine work.

CCS: We know that often, with our scholars, each day is different, but what would a typical day look like for you and your scholar?

Audrey: I wake up at 6 am, have breakfast and get ready for the day. After dropping my brothers off at school, I come home and organize my day by looking at all of my subjects and plan what I will focus on for the day. I love that I get to incorporate my ballet into my daily routine. For example, I can print out readings or resources and do my ballet stretching while I read them. I like to focus on one or two subjects per day because then, I can complete only one or two tests or writing assignments per day. I also pair up easier subjects with more difficult subjects to evenly spread out my work and pace myself. This way, I don't have to take four exams in one day. The flexibility is awesome!

CCS: What has been your greatest joy in schooling your scholar at home?

Amy: As her mom, I love seeing how independent she is becoming. She has grown up so much from when she started at Compass. It is wonderful as a parent to see her blossom into a young adult who can work independently and get good grades on her own.

CCS: Share a piece of advice you'd give to a parent thinking about taking their child out of school to school at home? My advice is to make sure to keep your scholar engaged in the program, encourage them to participate in extracurricular activities, clubs, and leadership opportunities that are offered. Encourage them to make friends with their classmates to build a community in the online environment. Also, help them navigate to what they are interested in and help them make connections with their teachers. Those relationships are invaluable to their success!

We're also featuring the Wilridge Family

Carmelle Hasan, a learning coach, and her scholar J'Len share their experience at CCS.

CCS: What grade is your scholar in and how long have you been part of Compass Charter Schools?

Carmelle: My scholar, J'Len is in eighth-grade and we have been part of CCS for four years.

CCS: What is your favorite school subject(s)?

J'Len: My favorite subject is science.

CCS: What do you enjoy most about being part of Compass Charter Schools?

J'Len: What I enjoy most about Compass is the challenging nature of the curriculum. I like the projects and that they make you use your brain and do research. I also like meeting new people during Learning Labs.

J'Len: I like to draw, make music, and work on my business, which is called Toocan Imagination. I have been cultivating the business for five years as a way to bring creative arts back into schools and help save animals around the world. I also enjoy making YouTube videos, which I am editing for my YouTube channel. Finally, I like to go on adventures in the woods.

CCS: What is one fun fact that you would like everyone at CCS to know about you?

J'Len: I am obsessed with foxes. I like their personality, the diverse color of their coat and how they play a really important role in the ecosystem, which is to help lower the population of rodents, birds, and other animals.

CCS: We know that often, with our scholars, each day is different, but what would a typical day look like for you and your scholar?

J'Len: I wake up and eat a healthy breakfast with my mom. I love to cook, so sometimes I do the cooking and sometimes my mom does. Then, I read a book to prepare my brain for learning and look at my calendar to decide which subjects to focus on in accordance with the daily Learning Lab schedule. Throughout the day, I take dance breaks in between school work to keep my mind awake and my blood flowing. Then, I will eat a healthy lunch, which again, I cook. After lunch, I do PE (either a Just Dance video or Karate) and then continue with my school work for a few more hours. My mom works from home as well, so we are checking in with each other often. Once school is over, I get to draw and listen to music. I am taking some art classes to learn new art techniques. Then I cook dinner with my mom where we talk about our day.

CCS: What has been your greatest joy in schooling your scholar at home?

Carmelle: I love the freedom to create our own learning environment at home. We can make the curriculum fun and individualize it for J'Len, more than you can at a regular school.

CCS: Share a piece of advice you'd give to a parent thinking about taking their child out of school to school at home?

Carmelle: Be patient with yourself. It can be overwhelming but don't compare yourself to others. Rather, make the experience your own and learn how to create a positive learning environment for both you and your scholar. Be patient with the process. It can take a few years, as it did for us, and we are always learning new things to try. Keep trying!

STAFF SPOTLIGHT

Andrea Lomeli, middle school English teacher at CCS.

CCS: What are your primary job responsibilities?

Andrea: My job is to be an encourage our scholars and to help them in their individual educational journey. I am a leader, listener, supporter. I get to help scholars grow their reading and writing skills to prepare for high school and beyond in our 21st-century world.

CCS: Can you tell us about your family?

Andrea: I have a family of seven. My husband Ren and I have been married for 14 years. Our son Cole is 12, our daughter Elliana is 10, and our daughter Macie is six. We have two puppies. Our Boxer Luna is two years old and our Boston Terrier, Lala is three years old.

CCS: What do you and your family like to do during your free time?

Andrea: We are very active in our kids' soccer community. Both my husband and I coach for a competitive soccer club and travel up and down the state of California for various tournaments and events. This is what takes up the majority of my free time!

CCS: What is your favorite thing about working at CCS?

Andrea: I love that even though I primarily work from home, I work for a school that is very supportive and encouraging all around, including our staff and families. I look forward to building on the supportive foundation that Compass has established.

CCS: What is your favorite thing about Learning Labs?

Andrea: I love learning from scholars. I love our time together to collaborate, work together toward common goals, and seeing their faces and hearing their voices to making learning come alive.

CCS: As an educator, is there a piece of advice you'd like to share with learning coaches or scholars?

Andrea: It is never too late to start fresh. With an independent study program like ours, there is a lot of freedom and there is always time to regroup and start fresh when you need to, especially with middle school scholars. This is the time when you need to start advocating for yourself and take ownership of your learning. You are supported by your teachers and staff who are here to support and help you any way you need. You have so many resources! Do not forget to reach out to them whenever you need.

CCS: What is one thing about you that very few people know?

Andrea: I totally sing in the shower. I get to embrace my inner entertainer and feel confident about my skills.

Terrasa McGuire, Middle School Math Teacher at CCS.

CCS: What are your job responsibilities?

Terrasa: As a middle school math teacher, my responsibilities include planning Learning Labs in a way that helps scholars understand the concepts. Additionally, scholars are encouraged to reach out to me to get additional help through email, message center, or instant chat. I communicate with homeroom families about scholars' progress in the online program and I grade discussions and projects.

CCS: Can you tell us about your family?

Terrasa: I live in a small house with my backyard up against BLM land (land that is not owned by anyone). In my home, I live with my dog Chloe who brings me joy and entertainment. My parents volunteer at the same organization that I do and live only 30 minutes from my home.

CCS: What do you and your family like to do during your free time?

Terrasa: Most of my non-work-related time is spent volunteering to feed the homeless in our community and working on my doctorate degree in Educational Technology. My focus for my degree involves online education and ways that we can improve the success of scholars who participate in this cutting-edge educational environment. When I am not doing that, I enjoy taking trips to Tahoe, CA and having a good meal with my family and friends. My goal for this year is to work on improving my health and fitness by exercising and eating healthier food.

CCS: What is your favorite thing about working at CCS?

Terrasa: My favorite part about working at CCS is that I get an opportunity to help scholars from all over California understand the wonder of math. In a traditional teaching environment, I would only get to interact with people that live in my local area. By working at CCS I get to meet a large number of amazing scholars who are already making a difference in the world. Working online, I have had the pleasure with working with TV stars, movie stars, Olympic hopefuls, professional hockey players, figure skaters, and scholars who have decided to take on the challenge of getting their education independently, so they can thrive in their environment.

CCS: What is your favorite thing about Learning Labs?

Terrasa: My favorite part about Learning Labs is the interaction with the scholars. I look forward every week to “seeing” every scholar attending my Learning Labs. I have the honor of getting to see the light bulb turn on while I provide clarification and instruction. The more engaged the scholars are, the more fun the class can have and, in turn, the more fun I have.

CCS: As an educator, is there a piece of advice you’d like to share with learning coaches or scholars?

Terrasa: As a mathematics educator, I want to help learning coaches and scholars understand the passion I have for the subject. When I was a scholar in middle school and high school and I was asked why I liked math so much, I had an answer that surprised most people who heard it. Math is like a jigsaw puzzle, with every piece that you place in the puzzle, you will see more of the picture until finally, the most amazing image appears. Just like a complex jigsaw puzzle can be challenging to find the right piece, math too can be challenging to understand, but the feeling of accomplishment you get when you finally understand and are able to see that beautiful picture is the best feeling you can have. In order to experience that wondrous emotion, (which only comes through struggle) we must face the challenges and embrace the journey. Eventually, you will understand and be successful. Math is the key that opens all kinds of doors when you are seeking a career and the journey to possessing that key, starts now.

CCS: Share one thing about you that very few people know.

Terrasa: One thing that very few people know about me is that while I was still in school I wrote poetry, some of which has been published in poetry books.

COUNSELING

Happy New Year!

This time of year signals the end of Semester 1, and our team has been working tirelessly behind the scenes preparing for Semester 2 with final details and pre-loading courses for scholars. Additionally, while the bulk of college application season is through, we are still deep into financial aid application season as the March 2nd deadline draws near. Our team continues to support scholars with various records and document requests, as well as financial aid application assistance. We are looking forward to hearing from scholars regarding college acceptance letters as they arrive in the spring!

October and November saw a great deal of college, career, and academic activities and presentations that many learning coaches and scholars were able to enjoy by attending the live sessions or receiving the recordings. We will continue to provide these valuable resources via our department presentations and our College and Career Success Cafes. We invite all of our scholars to contact their counselor for more information.

Lastly, in December our department delivered an internal presentation to our school staff about the topic of Suicide Prevention. Considering the prevalence of adolescent suicide in our culture, our goal is to ensure that our staff knows what to do if such a situation presented itself. Our team values the privilege to continue to support our Compass scholars, families, and staff.

As civil rights pioneer Harriet Tubman once said, "Every dream begins with a dreamer. Always remember, you have within you the strength, the patience, and the passion to reach for the stars to change the world." As your school counseling team, we are here to help you explore your dreams and discover how to achieve them. Reach out via phone, text, email, or video conference and talk to us soon. Remember to make every day great!

Counseling News

Congratulations to our scholars Alexia, Helena, and Amber, who were nominated for consideration of the Carson Scholars Fund scholarship. Our entire counseling team worked collaboratively to nominate three scholars, one from each of our schools - Fresno, Los Angeles, and San Diego. Nominations were based on scholar service to their community in addition to their academic excellence (minimum 3.75-grade point average). If awarded, each scholar stands to receive a $1,000 college scholarship for their future studies.

This February, the Counseling Department also looks forward to celebrating the 2018 National School Counseling Week, sponsored by the American School Counselor Association. This special week highlights the tremendous impact school counselors can have in helping scholars achieve school success and plan for a career. Please join us in celebrating the week starting next Monday, February 5 through Friday, February 9.

We highly encourage our families to visit our website and view a variety of helpful college and career preparation resources for scholars.

Family Spotlight

A learning coach shares her scholar's experience at CCS.

Our journey to California from Texas really began in 2016 after my husband's passing. I suppose you can say we are a military family, with my late husband serving in the U.S. Army many years ago, and my daughter serving as a 1st Class Petty Officer in the U.S. Navy. My daughter's involvement in the military is actually what brought us to California.

Having the flexibility of online schooling has been a great benefit for my son, John McHale, as he explores his post-high school options.

John had the opportunity to travel this past November/December to Hawaii to meet the USS Nimitz, a naval supercarrier returning from operations in the middle east. John is considering joining the military as one of his post-high school options, and being able to travel onboard the ship for a week as it returned to the San Diego naval base was a once-in-a-lifetime experience that has aided him in narrowing down a decision as to what he wants to do after he graduates high school in June 2018. He spent the better part of his time observing and assisting with missile launcher maintenance and repair duties in the shop, which was an invaluable experience for him.

While onboard the ship, there was no access to Internet or phone for national security reasons which meant 8 days on the ship without the ability to do school work. Staying on top of his school work definitely required some creativity and sacrifices on John's part while on this trip. He completed as much work as he possibly could in the hotel room at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, while waiting for the ship to arrive, as well as Powered by BoardOnTrack catching up with work upon his return.

I'm so glad we chose Compass Charter Schools! The flexibility in completing assignments and the range of subjects offered, as well as the ability to pursue topics of interest are all reasons that brought us here. One of the highlights that made me choose Compass over other online schools is the opportunity for social interaction with other scholars and parents through the diverse and interesting field trips offered. My family's experience with Compass has been great so far as I feel closer to the teachers, staff, and administration - more than those of my previous 4 children who attended both public and private brick-and-mortar schools. We are happy to be here.

Staff Spotlight

This month we are featuring Mr. Jacob Samples, School Counselor at CCS.

CCS: What are your primary job responsibilities?

Mr. Samples: My responsibilities as a school counselor involve providing support in academic planning and decision making, college and career exploration, and social-emotional wellness for our scholars, families, and faculty.

CCS: Can you share a little bit about your background in education and counseling?

Mr. Samples: I started out years ago as a program leader for an afterschool program called Think Together while I was completing my Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies at California State at Fullerton. I then earned my Master of Arts in Clinical Psychology from Antioch University at Los Angeles and moved to Palm Springs, CA to work at a community mental health clinic. I went back to school at the University of Redlands to receive my Pupil Personnel Services Credential for School Counseling while working at the Edison Academy for Differentiated Learning in Ontario, CA as a counselor for grades K-8.

CCS: What is your favorite thing about Powered by BoardOnTrack

Mr. Samples: I truly enjoy the challenge of connecting with scholars and families in a virtual setting, and watching them progress through the program. It is gratifying to see scholars gain confidence as they become more comfortable in their independent learning roles at CCS.

CCS: What is your favorite thing to do when you're not working?

Mr. Samples: My passion is theater arts. I love acting when I have time outside of my role as a school counselor. Additionally, I love to spend time with family and friends, and I love to travel and explore new places when I have the time!

WHAT'S NEW IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL?

What is new? In Elementary School, we believe that appreciation and gratitude create a thriving culture. We had two great events in November that captured the essence of those two attributes. In November, before Thanksgiving break, we had a Gratitude Rally, where scholars shared what they were thankful for. It was heart-warming and refreshing to listen to all the blessings shared by the group. In December, we had our first Holiday Traditions Rally. Our scholars came together and shared how they celebrate during the holiday season. We learned so much as scholars engaged us with stories of meals, holiday games, and family events that warmed all of our hearts. Our teachers finished the year by hosting our first Virtual Holiday Party! We played a holiday trivia game, shared recipes, and had a virtual gift exchange.

One item that we would like to pass along for everyone to try is called Friday Brags! Our teachers share one win that they had during the week. We invite all of our scholars and families to take time each week and share one victory that you had!

FAMILY SPOTLIGHTS

This month we are featuring the Chavez Family.

Penny Chavez, an elementary school learning coach shares her family's experience at CCS.

CCS: We know that often with our scholars each day is different, but what would a typical day look like for you and your scholar?

Penny: Our typical day runs from about 7:30 am until about 1:30 pm. After getting up, making beds, getting dressed, and taking my older kids to their school, we come home and get started. We have a first-grade scholar and a second-grade scholar that I support by alternating my time between scholars and their school subjects.

CCS: What has been your greatest joy in schooling your scholars at home?

Penny: My greatest joy is knowing that I am teaching my kids the information. It is so fun that I can teach my daughter history and watch her get excited and relate to the lessons. I love teaching my son math skills. He has made such an improvement, and it is very satisfying to know that I taught them the skills they need to succeed.

CCS: What has been your biggest challenge with schooling at home?

Penny: My biggest challenge as a parent who helps my kids learn at home has been supporting my son. He is a very smart kid, but teaching him has been a challenge because he is a very active boy, and I have learned to be patient when working with him. I have called and asked for advice from his teacher Mrs. Hooper, and she has given me creative ways to harness his energy and ideas.

CCS: Why did you decide to school from home with Compass Charter Schools?

Penny: We decided to choose online learning after watching my four older kids struggle with mandatory curriculums in traditional schools. I decided to give online learning at home a try to see if the one-on-one attention could help my children succeed. I have been very pleased with the results. I researched many schools and chose Compass Charter Schools because I liked the reviews and comments that I read on the Internet. I also did not want my kids to develop some of the bad habits that I had noticed in both of my older kids as well as the community. Immunizations also played a factor in my decision to choose learning at home. I have been very pleased with my decision to enroll my kids in the online learning program at Compass Charter Schools.

CCS: Share a piece of advice you'd give to a parent thinking about taking their child out of school to school at home?

Penny: The biggest piece of advice that I would give a new parent is to be patient and to know that the time you are spending with your kids is a great reward. I also would say that when in doubt, call your teacher because they are very helpful and have given me so much great advice.

CCS: What do you, your scholar, and the family enjoy doing together during your free time?

Penny: In our free time (with 6 kids, we have very little) we love to be together as a family! We love to go bike riding, play basketball and board games, have movie nights, but most of all just be together.

We are also featuring the Reyes Family.

Cherylynn Reyes, an elementary school learning coach shares her family's experience at CCS.

CCS: What has been your greatest joy in schooling your scholar at home?

Cherylynn: What I really enjoy about online learning from home is that when my scholars are enjoying a certain subject or concept, we can spend extra time learning about it. I can help them engage even further than they would have in a traditional brick-and-mortar school. I also like that I am able to see what they are struggling with so that I can spend extra time figuring out different ways to help them grasp the concept. Another thing I really enjoy is that learning from home allows me to be involved in my scholar's education, and it also allows my youngest daughter, who will start school next year, to be involved. Being able to see my youngest daughter get involved and enjoy learning has been amazing. I know she's developing a positive outlook on school and her education.

CCS: Why did you decide to school from home with Compass Charter Schools?

Cherylynn: Our family had been thinking about schooling at home for a while, but I wasn't sure if I could handle teaching my kids on my own. Then I learned about K12, which provides all of the materials I need to help my scholars learn at home so I figured we should try it out. Through the K12 website, we were able to enroll in Compass Charter Schools, which allows us to use the K12 program. I support my kids as their learning coach and teach them using the K12 website and materials. With K12 and the help of Compass Charter Schools' staff and teachers, we were able to learn and easily get the hang of schooling at home.

CCS: Share a piece of advice you'd give to a parent thinking about taking their child out of school to school at home?

Cherylynn: The advice I would give to parents who are thinking about schooling at home is to first do some research on what kind of experience you would like your kids to have, and know your options. Schools like Compass Charter Schools have a couple of different programs to choose from such as K12, their new Lanes program, and the Options Program. Also, try to get advice from parents who are already schooling at home so that you can learn about the benefits and challenges. Lastly, choosing to school at home may seem overwhelming at first, but with the help of teachers, staff, and other parents, it will become easy. And before you know it, a whole year will go by and you'll be ready to start another year.

SCHOLAR PROJECTS & ASSIGNMENTS

Take a look at some of the exciting things our scholars have been working on!

In December, our fourth and fifth-grade Compass Lanes scholars learned about potential and kinetic energy. They learned about different forms of energy and energy sources. They also determined different ways to conserve energy in everyday use.

Name: [REDACTED] Date: 12/15/2017

Energy Conservation Worksheet

In the grid below, color each square according to the following guidelines:

If it describes a waste of energy, color the square RED.

If it describes a way to save energy, color the square YELLOW.

Energy: Lesson 2, Wasting Energy at Home Activity — Energy Conservation Worksheet

Scholars in the Compass Lanes program completed their first literature circle by reading From the Mixed-up Files of Mrs. Basil E. Frankweiler by E.L. Konigsburg. They completed and presented weekly reading roles. After reading the book, our scholars chose a creative project based on the book and presented to their classmates. Our scholars created and presented dioramas, mobiles, chapter illustrations, and journal entries.

Our scholars enjoy physical education class every Tuesday and Thursday. They like dancing and exercising with their classmates. The scholars even gave a performance before Winter Break!

One of our fourth-grade scholars enjoyed making homemade soap!

Our scholars learned that reading is everywhere...even on a cereal box! They completed a word scavenger hunt with ingredients, calories, company name, nouns, adjectives, and numbers. Our scholars then drew a picture of their own cereal and wrote an advertisement to help sell the product by using a jingle, poem, or song.

Our scholars learned about a variety of ecosystems. They researched the importance of a well-balanced ecosystem and presented special projects to demonstrate how they work and why they are an important part of nature.

The talented Sarah Fox sat with our scholars and talked about the importance of editing. "You want your readers to enjoy your book and understand it." She followed it with a presentation of how she edits books on the computer and stated that depending on the book, the process of editing can take up to six months. She reviews one book at a time and loves reviewing fantasy, but gets all types of genres. We closed the class out with a question and answer period. It was a wonderful experience!

Compass Lanes scholars and learning coaches are enjoying our math program, TenMarks. Lanes scholars love the lessons, videos, and Jam Sessions. These help build essential skills for understanding and math fact fluency in an engaging and interactive way. Learning Coaches have shared that they appreciate the individualized instruction for their child through personal work and lesson amplifiers. Math has never been more fun!

Michelle: I believe in the individualized approach to learning and the flexibility that Compass offers scholars and allows them to proceed at their own pace in their academic subjects.

CCS: As an educator, is there a piece of advice you'd like to share with learning coaches or scholars?

Michelle: It's very important that our families create a routine for the scholars to follow each day. In addition, it's very important that scholars and their families keep in touch and connect with their teachers every day.

Michelle: I love to go to country music concerts. I go to at least ten concerts a year.

Monique Grimes, an elementary school teachers at CCS.

CCS: What is your job title, and what are a couple of the things you do at Compass Charter Schools? How long have you worked for Compass?

Monique: I teach our fourth and fifth-grade elementary scholars, and this is my third year at CCS.

CCS: What do you enjoy most about being part of Compass and the work you do here?

Monique: We have a different approach for teaching here at Compass. I enjoy that we are free to use different methods and have different options for our scholars.

CCS: As an educator, is there a piece of advice you'd like to share with learning coaches or scholars?

Monique: Don't give up, everyone learns differently! We aren't a cookie-cutter program. Don't get discouraged, take advantage of the flexibility of our program. Also, try to travel and go places. Don't just stay at home -explore the world around you while you learn.

CCS: Can you share one thing about yourself that very few people know?

Monique: Not many people know that I was a dancer. I did ballet, tap, modern dance and created my own production.

We have audited the financial statements of Compass Charter Schools (the Organization) for the year ended June 30, 2017. Professional standards require that we provide you with information about our responsibilities under generally accepted auditing standards and Government Auditing Standards, as well as, certain information related to the planned scope and timing of our audit. Professional standards also require that we communicate to you the following information related to our audit.

Significant Audit Findings

Qualitative Aspects of Accounting Practices

Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. The significant accounting policies used by Compass Charter Schools are described in Note 1 to the financial statements. We noted no transactions entered into by the Organization during the year for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus. All significant transactions have been recognized in the financial statements in the proper period.

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management's knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from those expected. The most sensitive estimate affecting the Organization's financial statements was:

CalSTRS On-Behalf Payments: Management's estimate of the STRS on-behalf contributions (Note 8) is based on guidance provided by the State of California and the California Department of Education. We evaluated the key factors and assumptions used to develop the STRS on-behalf amounts in determining that it is reasonable in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

The financial statement disclosures are neutral, consistent, and clear.

Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management in performing and completing our audit. A reissued audit report was deemed necessary due to the timing of relevant and material information. These difficulties are further noted in this letter within "other findings or issues."

Corrected and Uncorrected Misstatements

Professional standards require us to accumulate all known and likely misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are clearly trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. Management has corrected all such misstatements. In addition, there were no misstatements detected as a result of audit procedures. Management did however become aware of a material misstatement after the close of the audit. The misstatement has been corrected and resulted in reissued financial statements.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, a disagreement with management is a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, that could be significant to the financial statements or the auditor's report. We are pleased to report that no such disagreements arose during the course of our audit.

Management Representations

We have requested certain representations from management that are included in the management representation letter originally dated November 17, 2017. An updated letter of management representations was obtained, dated January 5, 2018, as a result of the reissued financial report.

Management Consultations with Other Independent Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters, similar to obtaining a "second opinion" on certain situations. If a consultation involves application of an accounting principle to the Organization's financial statements or a determination of the type of auditor's opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant facts. To our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants other than the normal consultations in working with CSMC, the Organization's back-office provider.

Other Audit Findings or Issues

We generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, with management each year prior to retention as the Organization's auditors. However, these discussions occurred in the normal course of our professional relationship and our responses were not a condition to our retention.

We did encounter an issue that did not appear to rise to the level of an audit finding; however, we have had discussions with management and have made certain recommendations regarding the following:

Inadequate Closing Process: During the conclusion of the audit, information regarding an accounts payable item incurred in October 2016 for $289,600 was discovered and brought to our attention. As a result of this material financial transaction, the client has made certain adjustments and prompted the need for a reissued audit report. Additionally, various other accounting adjustments were recorded to change the recognition of internal transfers and allocations. The Organization should have an adequate process in place to ensure that the financial records are complete and final prior to submitting closed records for audit. The process for closing the financial records appeared inadequate for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2017; however, we feel that these issues are limited to this particular fiscal year. We recommend that the Organization work closely with the back-office provider to ensure all financial records are complete and finalized within a reasonable time period following fiscal year end.

Other Matters

We were engaged to report on various items of supplementary information (statements by charter, average daily attendance schedules, and schedule of instructional time), which accompany the financial statements but are not required supplementary information. With respect to this supplementary information, we made certain inquiries of management and evaluated the form, content, and methods of preparing the information to determine that the information complies with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, the method of preparing it has not changed from the prior period, and the information is appropriate and complete in relation to our audit of the financial statements. We compared and reconciled the supplementary information to the underlying accounting records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves.

Restriction on Use

This information is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors and management of the Organization and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Sincerely,

Finance Committee Report
January 29, 2018

The Finance Committee met on Tuesday, January 23, 2018 at 3 pm. Members of the committee consist of Mr. Joe Cummings and Dr. Kathy Granger (Committee Chair). Mr. J.J. Lewis, President & CEO, serves as an ex-officio member, and Mr. Miguel Aguilar, Executive Assistant to the CEO, serves as secretary.

Mr. Lewis provided highlights from the Staff Report (the entire Staff Report can be found online, in our Personnel Committee Meeting Packet):

2016-17 Audit

Our 2016-17 Audit has been revised, and resubmitted to the State. The revisions were due to a late invoice and changes to our ending fund balances in order to meet SB740 Funding Determinations. We still have a clean audit for the 2016-17 year. See enclosed letter from Christy White Associates.

2018-19 Funding Update

We are finalizing our SB740 Funding Determinations, for our three charter schools and preparing to send them to the Charter Schools Division of the California Department of Education. Based on the audited financials, we expect to receive 100% funding for all three schools.

Individual Giving

We have updated our Individual Giving section of our website to accept donations as part of an Annual Fund. We have partnered with JustGiving to accept one-time and monthly recurring gifts, and Stock Donator to accept gifts of stock.

Mr. Lewis and Mr. Scott Warner, School Business from CSMC, walked the committee through the Balance Sheet and Year to Date Actual to Budget Detail.

Mr. Lewis led the committee in a review of the proposed 2017-18 amended operating budget. Revenue is now based on an P-1 numbers, resulting in change from $9,669,655 to $9,025,716, a decrease of $643,949. As noted in the Academic Affairs Committee Report, P-1 ADA was at 123.13 (95.04%) for CCS of Fresno, 409.51 (91.47%) for CCS of LA, and 367.99 (95.78%) for CCS of San Diego, while the original projections were based on 97% ADA. Expense projections have also slightly decreased, from $11,776,211 to $11,775,323. We are now projecting a $2.7 million deficit, with an overall ending fund balance of $5 million.

The Finance Committee voted unanimously to recommend approval the 2017-18 Amended Operating Budget to the full Board of Directors.

The next Finance Committee meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, February 20 starting at 2 pm.

Mr. Lewis provided highlights from the Staff Report (the entire Staff Report can be found online, in our Personnel Committee Meeting Packet):

CalSTRS Audit

We have been selected to participate in an audit of CalSTRS by their external auditor, CROWE. Lisa Fishman, Director of Operations, participated in a webinar on the process on December 5th. Our information is due to CROWE by December 31 and our goal is to submit before closing for Winter Break.

Public Records Request

We received a Public Records Request from a law firm in October, asking for records of every teacher employed. The types of records include employment contracts, lists of teacher's names and title, detail on each teacher's years of service, and a few other documents. We worked with our legal counsel to respond and comply with the request, and produced the requested items on November 20.

We also received a Public Records Request from Transparent California in November, asking for records of every employee. The types of information requested include employee name, position, total regular pay, and total retirement and health cost, for the 2016-17 year. We are working with our legal counsel to respond and comply with the request.

Mr. Lewis reviewed the results of the 2017 All-Staff Morale Survey, which was conducted by the Staff Advisory Committee. Results have been shared with the Staff Advisory Committee, who are looking at short and long term solutions to the feedback in the survey, as well as department heads who are looking at short and long term department-specific solutions. This is the first time we have conducted a morale survey, and plan on conducting a second survey in late spring.

The SLC reviewed the results of the SLC Scholar Survey at our January meeting. Please see attached PowerPoint presentations for the results. We will be discussing the results further, and providing recommendations for staff, at our February meeting.

Compass shared with the SLC that they are interested in becoming members in California Association of Student Leaders (CASL). CASL is a scholar-led, not-for-profit organization that provides a statewide network, which facilitates the development of ethical, responsible, and servant leaders. We have an opportunity to attend the 2018 CASL Do Good Better Conference, April 5-9, 2018.

Compass shared with the SLC that they joined The Energy Bus as its first online school in the exclusive program. The Energy Bus for Schools Leadership Journey is a multi-year, positive school initiative based on the success principles from Jon Gordon's best-selling book, The Energy Bus. They are helping schools transform negativity by focusing on the positive things happening in our schools daily.

The next Scholar Leadership Council meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, February 14th starting at 3pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

Ms. Vania Linares
Scholar Leadership
Council Chair

Review and Approval of the 2017-18 Amended Operating Budget

Section: VII. NEW BUSINESS
Item: A. Review and Approval of the 2017-18 Amended Operating Budget
Purpose: Vote
Submitted by: J.J. Lewis
Related Material: CCS - Budget FDF 17-18 - 11618.pdf

BACKGROUND:

The FY18 Operating Budget was approved at the June 26, 2017 Annual Meeting, and amended at the September 25, 2017 Regular Meeting. This FY18 Amended Operating Budget has been created with the assistance of our back office provider, CSMC. We are projecting lower revenue from $9,669,655 to $9,025,716, a decrease of $643,949, and lower expenses from $11,776,211 to $11,775,323. This will result in a higher deficit of $2,749,606, and an overall ending fund balance of $5 million. The primary cause of the lower revenue is lower enrollment and lower ADA. We will monitor and track our budget carefully and provide regular updates to the Finance Committee and Board of Directors throughout the year. This FY18 amended operating budget has been reviewed by the Finance Committee, and they have voted to recommend approval by the full Board of Directors.

RECOMMENDATION:

A motion to approve the 2017-18 amended operating budget.
