V. Public Comment

A. Public Comment

Addressing the Council – Scholar Leadership Council meetings will be held in a civil, orderly and respectful manner. All public comments or questions should be addressed to the Council through the Chair of the Council. To ensure an orderly meeting and an equal opportunity for each speaker, persons wishing to address the Council must send a Speaker Request Message through the form of a text message or chat box message to Josue Garcia, Executive Assistant to the Superintendent (805-341-6053). Messages must contain speaker name, contact number or email, and subject matter and sent prior to the beginning of the Public Comment section of the meeting. Members of the public may address the Council on any matter relating to the school and have three (3) minutes each to do so. The total time of each subject will be fifteen (15) minutes, unless additional time is requested by a Council Member and approved by the Council.

The Council may not deliberate or take action on items that are not on the agenda. However, the Council may suggest direction to staff following a presentation. The Chair is in charge of the meeting and will maintain order, set the time limits for the speakers and the subject matter, and will have the prerogative to remove any person who is disruptive of the Council meeting. The Scholar Leadership Council may place limitations on the total time to be devoted to each topic if it finds that the numbers of speakers would impede the Council's ability to conduct its business in a timely manner. The Scholar Leadership Council may also allow for additional public comment and questions after reports and presentations if it deems necessary.

III. Special Guests

A. Options Learning Program Discussion

Mr. Armstrong, Director of Options Learning, joined the Scholar Leadership Council meeting for a discussion on the Options Learning Program.

Mr. Armstrong discussed and shared with the council what makes the program unique and special, what is new for scholars this year, where the SLC can be used to support the program (ideas to brainstorm, ideation with the SLC in general), and what is on the horizon. He also shared an overview of the OCLC team and mentioned P.L.P. (Personalized Learning Plan) a tool used to guide the connection meetings and help scholars discuss their personal growth. Mr. Armstrong also welcomes the council to share information with other Firebirds to enhance scholar growth. Mr. Armstrong also gave an overview of Seesaw and how to engage in it.

Aure asked if there can be local activities.

Mr. Armstrong mentioned that there are multiple vendors in all areas, he recommends scholars ask their STs about their local activities.

Grace Newell asked if enrichment activities are different than the engagement events. Mr. Armstrong mentioned enrichment activities can come from the Engagement Department and other activities come from the vendor's activities. Please reach out to your STs for more information on your local activities.

Mr. Ke'Len shared his email and welcomed any additional questions regarding the Options Learning Program: karmstrong@compasscharters.org.

IV. Public Comment

V. Reports

A. Staff Report

Under Staff Report, Mr. Lewis shared that Veterans Day is Friday, November 11. There will be a scholar virtual assembly Friday, November 18 at 1:00 pm for Indigenous People Month. Fall break will be the third week of December, 21 - Monday through Friday, December 25, 2022.

Mid-year diagnostic assessments will be on the first week of December.

Staff will be able to provide additional support for scholars to finish strong after the Fall break. Mr. Lewis shared that it is important to have these results for the Charter Renewals to support scholars and reflect on where scholars started at the beginning of the year, what they have improved

Compass of San Diego is up for its second renewal coming up at the end of next year where Compass will share the scholar data.

Compass is also currently working on WASC and will have a virtual visit at the end of January/Early February to achieve approval for the next 6-year cycle of CCS, members of WASC will meet in a special meeting with the SLC to go over data.

Compass is currently in its 11th year of operation.

Mr. Lewis mention that the current enrollment cap is set at 2,400 and there is still room for prospective scholars to join the Compass experience.

VI. New Business

A. Discussion on the Superintendent & CEO Search

Under New Business Airis Younge has resigned from the role of Chair. The council will hold an election for Vice Chair for the 22-23 school year in December.

Mr. Lewis welcomes scholars who would like to run for Vice Chair, please send a statement to him by Tuesday, December 6, 2022, at jlewis@compasscharters.org.

The council discussed and reviewed the Superintendent & CEO search results.

Mr. Lewis shared that three finalists have been announced: Elizabeth Brenner, Catina Hancock, and Cheryl James-Ward out of 22 nominees.

Mr. Lewis shared that there is a Google form that invites feedback on the prospective Superintendents/CEO due by Thursday, November 10, 2022:

<https://forms.gle/1xtRxsr5JoKvM6H5A>. Mr. Lewis encourages scholars to share this form with fellow scholars and provide feedback.

The new Superintendent/CEO will start on January 2023.

30. How has your Compass Experience been thus far this school year?

#ChooseCompass Campaign

If you are willing to share your scholar perspective on our Compass Experience to prospective scholars, please complete this short Google Form to be part of our #ChooseCompass social media campaign: <https://forms.gle/w7jRyzJhSsXXDah79>

NOTE - participating does not link your anonymous responses above to your #ChooseCompass Campaign Google Form.

Highlight, by Friday

Scholars in grades 3-12 are invited to participate in an anonymous survey, Highlight. The purpose of Highlight is to assess how scholars are experiencing conditions essential to achieving academic success. The 10-12 minute survey asks scholars to indicate their level of agreement with 25 statements aligned to five indicators. Scholar responses to the Highlight tool will position our school to identify and address conditions gaps within and between scholar groups. The conditions of learning measured are: Basic Needs, Belonging, Self-Efficacy, Rigor, and Hope.

If you are comfortable, please complete the survey below, based on the charter you are enrolled in:

Scholar in grades 3-12 enrolled in CCS of Los Angeles: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/losangelesfall2021>
