Action 1.2a	All scholars will be supported through the Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) framework, with a focus on Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS).
Expenditures up to date As of 11/15/2022	Compass Charter Schools of Los Angeles: $10,298 Compass Charter Schools of San Diego: $9,187 Compass Charter Schools of Yolo: $7,029
Planned Expenditures - Total Funds	Compass Charter Schools of Los Angeles: $59,460 Compass Charter Schools of San Diego: $47,686 Compass Charter Schools of Yolo: $36,750
Implementation Status	Fully Implemented
Update	Our supervising teachers (STs) continue to use Rising Scholar Tickets and a list of reward suggestions to be used to reward and reinforce positive behavior. Compass STs have also attended select trainings on PBIS to implement Social Emotional Learning (SEL) activities. Compass has also provided staff training on SEL strategies to improve engagement and reinforce positive behavior and scholar acumen.

	Some members of the academic leadership team have been codifying our continuum for progressive discipline that focuses on prevention/intervention and restorative practices.
On Our Docket	Not Applicable.

Action 1.2b	All scholars will be supported through the Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) framework, with a focus on Response to Intervention (RtI). Scholars who are identified as needing Tier 2 and Tier 3 levels of support will have access to tutoring services.
Expenditures up to date As of 11/15/2022	Compass Charter Schools of Los Angeles: $73,148 Compass Charter Schools of San Diego: 64,169 Compass Charter Schools of Yolo: $71,055
Planned Expenditures - Total Funds	Compass Charter Schools of Los Angeles: $174,830 Compass Charter Schools of San Diego: $163,571 Compass Charter Schools of Yolo: $186,388
Implementation Status	Partially Implemented
Update	The MTSS and Resource tutoring started on October 3, 2022 with 1,257 scholars rostered into the Fall MTSS tutoring sessions for English Language Arts or math, some combined. Our Scholar Success team is currently providing intervention to approximately 250+ scholars that attend each week. They are using Freckle and Lalilo as intervention tools and the data is used to shape the direction of the next lesson. In order to increase engagement, scholars have set personal academic goals that will be revisited throughout the semester. Scholars who do not score a 70% on session assessment, are encouraged to repeat the lesson until they've mastered the skill. Additionally, Tutors, Resource Specialists and the Scholar Success Coordinator are checking in with scholars who miss two sessions in a row (either by email or phone call). In order to provide support to scholars who cannot attend, team members are uploading recordings into Nearpod lessons and tracking asynchronous participation. The Teacher on Special Assignment (ToSA) team has been meeting to discuss team updates and the next steps with Curriculum Based Measures (CBM). CBM's are short assessments within Renaissance that can be given to scholars in grades K-6 to determine specific strengths or weaknesses within a content area. CBM will give us data regarding supporting scholars, under our MTSS Framework. In other words, CBM will give teams actionable data to assist with intervention, and is a proactive practice in applying interventions early. CBM re-screening will take place in December for those scholars who were screened in September and are attending intervention.
On Our Docket	The internal assessment window is in December 2022 and we will be able to measure the success of our interventions and make adjustments, as needed, for the spring semester. CBM re-screening will take place throughout December as well.

Update	As part of the support/resources provided by the EL Coordinator in support of the CDE's English Learner Roadmap, Compass values the languages and cultures that our EL scholars bring to their education and are assets for their own learning and are important contributors to all learning communities. These assets are valued and support building capacity of our teachers in providing culturally responsive curriculum and instruction and in programs that support, where possible, the development of proficiency in multiple languages. The Academic Support team has had 820 scholars attend at least 1 live session since the beginning of the school year (including intervention tutoring, resource groups, bootcamps, and EL sessions). The EL Department has begun using the Here at Every session Ready and On time (HERO) program for EL synchronous group sessions. EL tutors are holding weekly raffles as an award incentive for scholars who attend. There was a 2% increase in scholar attendance from September to October since the HERO program was implemented. We have seen an increase in Lexia passing rates. The passing rate for the month of September was 70% while the passing rate increased to 78% in October. The English Learner Support team will be using STAR Spanish to assess scholars who have the same/low ELPI for two consecutive years, a reduction in ELPI level, and/or newcomers to CA/US schooling. By using STAR Spanish, the supervising teacher (ST) will be able to test their own scholars or opt-in to get support from the English Learner Support team to help with language support. So far approximately 33 scholars have been rostered to take STAR Spanish.
On Our Docket	The Curriculum Developer will continue to develop a plan for STAR testing support for scholars and STs. The focus of this plan is to help scholars to be prepared to access their assessments for the next STAR assessment window. EL live support sessions and access to the Lexia ELD curriculum will continue throughout the year.

Update	All supervising teachers (STs) are offering engaging live synchronous sessions, as well as asynchronous sessions. Synchronous Learning lessons for all scholars started on August 31. The Online Learning Department has been looking at Online data reporting for this fall. The data reporting will focus on scholar performance, data

	collection from the School Pathways Student Information System (SPSIS), and self-reported information provided by the Online STs. This data will continue to evaluate how tier 1 interventions and strategies are leveraged within Accelerate Education courses, live instructional sessions, and connection meetings by empowering scholars to choose assignments and assessments to showcase that represent their learning styles and support needs. The Options Learning Department has daily scheduled live synchronous sessions for scholars grade TK-3, and weekly live synchronous instruction offerings weekly for scholars grades 4-12. Students that are interested in completing A-G courses have access to curated A-G accredited courses supported by subject specific credentialed STs. STs also hold support sessions during monthly connection meetings to ensure scholars are supported and monitored. High School scholars participate in monitored testing sessions as well. Scholars and learning coaches that are not meeting live synchronous instruction expectation participate in independent study evaluation meetings where a scholar support team gathers to develop an action plan focused on increasing synchronous instruction engagement and participation. Asynchronously, our scholars engage with STs via Seesaw, a digital work portfolio, where teachers review work, provide feedback where teachers can review work, provide feedback and assign additional work if needed to ensure scholars are meeting grade level standards. Since the start of EL tutor synchronous sessions on August 31, 2022 there has been an increase of 2% (33% for the month of October) set by the baseline of average attendance of 31% for the month of September. Tutors have been focussed on engagement and also hold 1:1 sessions for at risk scholars who require additional support in Lexia/ELD Course.
On Our Docket	The Director of Online Learning Program will collaborate with the Director of Operations regarding capturing attendance at learning labs and live synchronous instruction throughout our SPSIS. Our Curriculum Developer will continue to develop rubrics for the Mental Health Unit as well as a pacing guide for the Compass developed resources that will be provided.

Update	Our Engagement Department currently has 21 active scholar clubs for our scholars to choose from. The first rotation of Scholar Clubs began on Monday, September 19 from 1-4 pm. Scholars who join a scholar club get to experience things such as:

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● LEGO Club (TK-5) - The club members built an Owl LEGO Kit together. They worked on the activity as a group, those who did not opt in for a kit were building sets of their own. ● Virtual Field Trips Club (TK-5) - Club members took a trip to the Moon. First, they went to Florida to have an official "Rocket Launch," and then they were on their way. They learned some fun facts and even explored the surface of the moon through Google maps. ● Virtual Field Trips Club (6th to 12th) - Club members did an introduction of themselves and discussed the many benefits of traveling and how it can open up minds about the world and people. Club members explored the beautiful island of Guam where the club advisor is from originally. Scholars reviewed the many villages, landscapes and the delicious cuisines. Our Engagement Department hosted several Virtual Scholar Workshops like such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The Respect Tour - Scholars learned R-E-S-P-E-C-T through song and dance during this interactive virtual scholar workshop. Attendees heard a variety of songs that highlighted not only respect, but many of Compass' other core values including achievement, teamwork, integrity, and communication. ● Baketivity (TK-8) - Scholars put on their chef hats and completed a Baketivity Kit. They made rainbow unicorn cookies and got to practice using tools like cookie cutters and piping bags. ● Baketivity (9-12) - Our highschool scholars joined the baking fun and made a challenging recipe. Update	All STAR diagnostics, Early Literacy, Math, and Reading, have been administered to all scholars in September. Following Early Literacy, if scholars scored below the 25th percentile, STAR Curriculum Based Measures (CBMs) were administered to scholars in grades K-3, to ensure other targeted interventions were put in place to support literacy and reading skills. Math and Reading Intervention Tutoring rosters and Resource Group rosters were based on STAR diagnostic results, and sessions began in October. These sessions were in addition to the bootcamp sessions, based on last year's results - this way, our scholars had access to support groups the 1st week of school. Tutors are using the focus skills that are being taught and assessed via Freckle, and scholars are encouraged to work in Freckle to close skill gaps outside of their tutoring group. IXL is being used by the Math Resource Specialist to provide additional Math practice (in addition to Freckle) for scholars at Urgent Intervention.
On Our Docket	The second STAR benchmark will be administered December 1 - 16, in order to track growth, and provide further interventions through Freckle. Freckle is personalized to the scholars' level, and will be assigned to close gaps. Tutoring groups will also be adjusted according to scholars' performance level, and they will receive tiered support under our MTSS Framework.
