II. Special Guests

A. Online Learning Program Discussion

Janae Smith, Director of Online Learning in Online Program Academic Services, joined the Scholar Leadership Council meeting for a discussion on the Online Learning Program.

Mrs. Smith discussed and shared with the council what makes the program unique and special, what is new for scholars this year, where the SLC can be used to support the Online Learning Program (ideas to brainstorm, ideation with the SLC in general), and what is on the horizon. She also shared an overview of the Online Learning Leadership team, Online Elementary school team, Online Middle school team, and the Online High school team.

Mrs. Smith also welcomes the council to reach out to the Coordinators when they have a question. Mrs. Smith gave an overview of the Online Learning WIG Lead Measures, Online Personalized Learning Plan, Learning Coach (LC) responsibilities, scholar expectations, and the Learning Labs at Compass.

Tia mentioned: The engagement with scholars has been working very well.

Tia asked: Can options scholars also attend the Q&A sessions?

Mrs. Smith mentioned that Learning Labs are recorded.

Tia asked: May I come in for additional help in algebra?

Mrs. Smith mentioned that the Online and Options coordinator can come up with a plan to expand the Q&A sessions.

Avery asked: I wanted to know if there is a music class

Mrs. Smith mentioned that Compass offers a class in middle school and that Compass but would like to come up with more ideas for classes and club opportunities.

Tia mentioned: coursera and edx as resources.

Mrs. Smith welcomes scholars to reach out if there are any questions:
