B. Superintendent's report on district wide operations

At this time, A. Beck briefed the Board on the intent to have a partial return to school after the labor day holiday. A. Beck presented the Board with the safe return document (section III item c) The numbers on the chart do not reflect a safe return plan at this time, so we are requesting that the virtual learning continues through 9/25/2020.

N. Gillam asked regarding the attendance percentages with the virtual learning- A. Beck briefed that the middle school has been hovering at around 70% virtual attendance and Andrea Johnson, Principal at Lanier, advised that attendance has been inconsistent due to various family situations, however, teachers are working with families to ensure the kids that didn't attend all of the subjects for the day obtain the content that they missed. Both Ms. Sims, Principal at Glen Oaks and Ms. Faulk, Principal at Dalton advised that all the teachers are working with families to ensure kids get online.

C. Safe Return Document

The BR Cohort of Schools Covid-19 Safe return school transition document was shared with the Board virtually via zoom and Angela Beck discussed the chart provided within the document.
