II. Public Forum

A. Public Comment

Public comment #1: Public donation of snacks to CCS to help fill gaps and fill food insecurities where needed. DC attendance at St Monica Catholic Church with board member Diane Charity and DC leads KC Tenants, where Diane also serves.

Public comment #2: Jennifer voices a concern when it comes to scheduling for student classes. Students were unable to schedule classes needed to meet graduate requirements due to a seminar class. The commenter asked that CCS review and investigate ways to mitigate. The superintendent will follow up on the concern.

III. Educational Excellence

A. District Spotlight: Marketing and Communications

Darin Smith, CCS Communication and Marketing Manager, presented the social media matrix and growth for Crossroads Charter Schools across all platforms.

B. State Assessment Data & APR Highlights

Beth Edmonds and Karis Parker presented the matrix for the CCS district's FY2025 State Assessment Data and APR wins across the district.

IV. Finance

A. October Check Register

J. Williams made a motion to October check Register.
J. Schwartz seconded the motion.
