III. Education Committee Update

A. K - 12 Head of School Update

K. Davidson shared K-12 school updates.

- On Thursdays meeting he will be sharing updates for the reopening on Monday.
- Interim assessment for LCS will be taken online and will follow like the state exams. Slight drop in ELA and Math.
- In CPA, there has been a drop in the interim assessment scores from both exams given in November and January.
- On Monday March 1st, the school will be reopening. The team has been calling every single family to confirm the scholars cohorts. We are hoping to persuade more scholars to come back to school.
- There has been some hesitation from our families due to the fact that we are in a yellow zone but it is important to our families that we open and help push the scholars academically.
- It is anticipated that the state exams might be postponed but not assessments.
- The CDC released guidance yesterday for schools and MET has been doing everything since school started. K. Davidson highlighted the school operations team for all the work they have done since the beginning of the school especially around safety.
- 25% of the staff members have taken at least one dose of the vaccine. We're hoping for more staff members to opt in to the vaccine.
- The staff will be coming in the building on Friday February 26, 2021 to prepare for the reopening on Monday March 1st for hybrid instruction full school K-12. At least 1/6th of the student body will be in the building for hybrid instruction.

J. Boulet asked how did we decide to reopen in March? K. Davidson responded that our charter consultant strongly recommended that we reopen. The DOE has also opened schools for middle and elementary school.

B. Education Committee Report

E. Chen updated on the IA data that K. Davidson has been working on. He is using the data for analysis on how to improve teaching methods for the staff. K. Davidson will present the data during the board meeting.
