C. Review the Agenda

A. Bothner went over the agenda for the evening.
M. Dorrie arrived at 6:39 PM.

D. MetLCS Mission/Vision Reflection and Grounding

A. Bothner shared his vision and understanding of the MetLCS mission.

II. School Update

A. Executive Director Update

A. Bothner, M. Russell, and A. Khatiwada will continue to have weekly updates for all communication purposes. Other committee chairs can communicate with them when needed to communicate with M. Russell. M. Russell will give monthly updates on his 30/60/90 plan that he shared on Boardontrack. A. Bothner also shared that everyone should take a look at the resources folder on boardontrack.

Core of the relationship for the ED and the board:

- CEO support rubric-game plan and key metrics that M. Russell will be evaluated.

- Board Evaluations and CEO- M. Russell will develop these metrics.

For board members, M. Russell will begin to have one on one meetings to get know every member.

M. Russell shared that he is excited for the commitment and the vision that everyone brings to the table.

M. Russell shared the start of

- Vision-M. Russell would like to work on the vision and clarify where we want to go moving forward.
- 3 things he would like to work on-Rigor, community, and self advocacy
- Rigor-defines it as respect for the scholars and our school community. An opportunity to maximize the scholars' academic attainment and challenge them to succeed.
- Self advocacy- He would like for the scholars to feel their own power, find and own their voices, and know that they are heard and needed in their community.
- Community- emphasizing the family concept. Every single student and families feel that they are loved and respected. Scholars and families should feel supported, safe and loved from everyone in the building. Also, Staff members to do their very best to support and love the school community.

90 Day-

- By the 90 days, he would like that everyone know who he is.
- Org Chart- Spend a lot of time on the importance of staff members and what we want to say about our staff and our personnel.
- Hiring Protocol-What do we value?
- Strong Introductions- Build strong relationships with everyone in the school community.
- CPA-Where do we want to go? How to make it better?
- Testing Protocols-How are we going to succeed?

60 Day-

- Finalize org chart and budget which correlates.
- Finalize the budget for the next year internally.
- Summer Trainings-Will be focused on our new vision. The vision will be repeated and will be learned by everyone.

A. Khanyile arrived at 6:53 PM.

B. K - 12 Head of School Update

K. Davidson shared that today's theme will be about reopening. Full K-12 staff will be in the building tomorrow to prepare for the reopening. Tomorrow K. Davidson will be presenting a powerpoint to staff members to highlight guidelines and protocols for reopening.

- CDC Guidance will be shared to the staff and all 5 areas that were shared have been doing above and beyond with what is required for school safety.
- There is a new study that shows, schools are among the safest places. Students are not infecting staff members.
- DOE has been open for weeks now. Vaccines for teachers are widely available.
- The Bronx is in the yellow zone but we are being extra safe as if we are in the orange zone.
- The city has lowered the test positivity rate due to more people getting the vaccine.
- Science shows that scholars are really needing the emotional and social support.
- Our school is up for Charter renewal next year and we have to show that our priority has been about the scholars academic success.
- Challenges in testing and hoping that in person learning can increase the scholars iReady test scores.
- On Monday, some of our scholars received free haircuts by a non profit organization.
- A parent presentation was given yesterday for reopening learning.

Data Analysis from school in person to remote testing.

- Our goal has been to create a corrective action plan based on the interim assessment data. Teachers are reteaching and giving quizzes to correct mistakes that scholars have made.
- There has been promising data for scholars increasing their scores.
- Teachers are coached on how to best support their scholars on a 1 on 1 level.

K. Davidson shared that the goal has not changed for the success of our scholars academically and safety.

C. Managing Director of Operations Update

M. Alston shared a quarterly update on long projects from the transition. She shared a slideshow that shows what her team is working on.

- Creating documents-policies and procedures are being created for Nausin.

B. Executive Director Evaluation Tool

J. Boulet covered that an Executive Director evaluation tool will be developed over the course of the next several months with A. Bothner and M. Russell. This will be a standing update over the upcoming months as this process unfolds.

C. Reflections of Self Assessment

J. Boulet shared that the Governance Committee shared high-level take-aways from the self-assessment that the Board completed last month. She shared that the Board feels that it has achieved success with overall mission/vision, foundational systems, protocols, and compliance. Going forward, the Board will be broadly looking to clarify expectations and continued professional development for Trustees and Committees, undertake more detailed and concrete planning processes at the individual and committee levels, and improve tracking of progress (accountability) through use of these plans. Most of this work will happen at the Committee level as Committee Chairs reflect on specific ideas for their own committees.

On the Strategic Initiatives, J Boulet shared that the Governance Committee's progress towards these goals in the last quarter were chiefly around the self-assessment, Professional Development Day on February 6, and through getting the conversation started around Diversity Equity and Inclusion at the PD Day. She previewed that in the coming months the GC will be working with Committee Chairs to start looking forward to and working toward putting together annual plans for their Committees.

D. Mid Year Principal Evaluation

J Boulet shared that the mid-year principal evaluation is well underway and that last steps to discuss with M. Russell and put together an action plan with K. Davidson will occur in the coming weeks, and the full evaluation will be shared with the Board at the next meeting.

A. Bothner emphasized that Committee Chairs should start looking forward to next year plan's. J. Boulet created tracking documents for the Board that committee chairs can use. J Boulet will share those tracking documents with everyone. A Bothner highlighted the following action items for Committee Chairs to consider:

- Who do you need to work with?
- Prepare your committees to start implementing the plans in July
- Develop thoughts and reflections from past year's accomplishments
- The goal is to that committee tracking documents will be accessible for all board members so that less time need be devoted to sharing in the monthly meeting, and meetings can focus more on substantive areas of discussion

F. Board Strategic Initiatives Update

J. Boulet shared updates on the Governance committee has been working on setting up the PD day. C. Barnes has been working on the dei which is important for the governance committee. Over the next quarter leading into June are going to start looking forward to next years plan for the Governance committee.

A. Bothner updated the Board and school leaders have a hearing next Thursday with the charter authorizer to present our school. This is a preliminary meeting to approve the changes to the school's charter as we transition toward being an independent (non-CMO) school.

D. Pasek will begin updating the board monthly due to the upcoming charter renewal in October 2021.

- Test scores will not be heavily used for the renewal due to covid
- Enrollment questions will be asked heavily for renewal. What will Nausin look like?
- What will we look like after covid? Schools are being asked this question and the team needs to present what the school will look like for the next 5 years, including a very strong, detailed post-Covid resumption plan.
- Updates on the school transition will be given in September.

K. Shabazz asked D. Pasek share information from other schools that have done well with Covid-era renewal applications. M. Russell also asked if D. Pasek can also describe the weak points of applications from schools that did not submit strong renewal applications. D. Pasek shared that the schools that were most successful aim to make their schools as successful as if Covid had never happened. They usually have rigorous learning programs for Summer in order to ensure that students are where they need to be for the coming school year.

E. Chen shared that she has found an outside company to help fundraise in an athletic event. M. Alston and K. Davidson have shared a wish list with E. Chen for the company. This will begin the framework for an external relations project for the near future.

VIII. Executive Session

A. Executive Session to be Proposed to Discuss a Personal Matter.

A. Bothner made a motion to Propose exec session for discussions regarding proposed, pending, or current litigation relating to a former employee.
