C. Operations Update

M. Alston-

- Completed the certification report. This is a report to the state reporting the first process that I put it last time was who all is working at the school and what are they teaching.
- Attendance Reporting- Attendance is used to be reported to the city in the city system. And it now has a completely different process now that we are remote.
- Also ramping up the CRDC, we are working on that paper-wise. The portal is not open yet, but they have provided the PDF version. We were able to print and distribute out so we could at least have it written. When the portal does open up, it will be very easy to import the data.
- Enrollment Updates- We are about 50% enrolled already for the 67 open seats that we have for next school year.
- Academic Operations Updates- We have a lot of ongoing projects but one new project that we're putting a lot of time into is regents planning and support for the high school and eighth graders for next month
- Managing Director Updates- Working on policy drafts and offer letters. We have already executed almost all of the offer letters and we've built out the position descriptions.
- Talent Acquisition Updates- We still have two current openings. Those openings were our SPED and ELL, and we just have not found the right candidate. We also have nine future openings that we are currently hiring for and sourcing for right now.
- In regards to COVID, we tested twice this month. We don't have to test, but out of an abundance of caution and ensuring that we are doing more than what's recommended, we test in the building, that's scholars and staff. So we tested 112 staff and scholars and we had a hundred percent negative tests yet again.
- Additionally, to look ahead, next month we will be approving the policies and those will be for Nuasin. Some of them are a revision of what we already had and others are new policies that we're looking to present to the board. Some are in the loss and transformation. My team and I are working extensively with this.
- Summer Updates- The school building will be going through transformation and regular maintenance, like stripping and waxing the floor and making sure that the school looks beautiful. There's going to be a lot of vendors that will be in the building in the summer, and all these vendors will have to work well together and at some point in the same space together, doing different things. For June, I will be providing you my recommendations as some of these vendors are going through the RFP process or have already, and I will be providing my recommendation for those with a breakdown.

- We continue to do data migration work on the new website and PowerSchool transition. So those are all things working in the background with LHA and our technology company, CTS. Additionally, I just kind of pushed CTS again, as I know that the transition of the board during this process is essential for it to make sure that it makes sense. So I have the CTS project manager who was the person that the senior leadership talks to. He's going to be the exact point person for anyone that has questions on the board for transition purposes, email, one log-in, forward on track, et cetera. He's going to be the point person directly, and we'll have a flyer, one pager with instructions on what all needs to happen.

K. Perez-

- Our numbers have been pretty steady since April. So we have about 479 for the lower school and 198 for the high school, with a total of 677 as a whole. The data for enrollment is the same as last month, but this month we have been working really hard on getting our intent to return forms, where we ask our scholars if they'll be returning and also enrolling our new scholars with a main focus of kindergarten, which has the most open seats. That's pretty much for enrollment this month.
- As of today, we have 1,700 kids on the waitlist.
- Facilities- The project manager provided the plans to FDNY and she thinks it will be approved soon. There is a fee pending, which was for the application. So we sent over our information to Linda which hopefully speeds up the process for the application.
- Rooftop Updates- No new updates.

D. 2021-2022 Budget Approval

M. Russell shared information on the new Nuasin projects. The budget is 80% approved due to the salaries of staff members.

- New technology Order- Elmos and new smart boards will be needed to enhance the scholars learning.
- Interior and Exterior Painting- The building will be painted with the new school colors.

R. Keogh prepared a side-by-side snapshot of where we landed and what our proposed budget as of this month versus what you all saw last month. We're seeing budgeted surpluses for the next fiscal year.

Key changes:

- Surplus- the capital outlay was $1.2 million. We actually worked softly projecting about $2.8 million last month. That money can be allocated over the next two to three years. On the expense side, this Board approved our salary proposal from last month, so those salaries were locked in.
