II. Policy Updates

A. Approvals this month

- Malik gave an overview of the school's approach to the Scholar Family Handbook and Staff Handbook: have been working to ensure that all major bases are covered and fill any pre-existing gaps; moving forward, will continue to keep an eye on ensuring all policies align with Nuasin holistically. The Board is reviewing these and will hold a vote on approval at the Saturday Board meeting.
- Trustee Annual Pledge:
 - The Committee reviewed the language of the pledge to ensure it aligns with the Board's current working methods and expectations.
- Absentee Policy: The Committee discussed the need for and appropriate approach to an attendance/absentee policy.
 - The Committee reviewed the Board on Track template "Absentee Policy." Overall the Committee disagreed with the tone of the policy, which seems punitive and out of line with the Board's current culture of mutual trust, personal responsibility and respect.
 - Committee members wanted time to review and discuss the details of attendance expectations, including setting up a clear, flexible and sensitive process for dealing with Trustee absences.
 - Committee members also felt it was important to highlight that attendance is just one part of how Trustees fulfill their commitments to the Board and School, and that the relevant policy/ies should reflect that.
 - The discussion, review and finalization process will continue into August, with a goal of voting on it at the August board meeting.

B. Policy Review Standard

The Committee revisited the question of selecting policies for Board-level review.

Following reflection and thought, the Committee felt comfortable with the current policies for review, which encompass all the policies which are critical to the School's existence, and enable Board members to fulfill their fiduciary duties as well as their duties of care, loyalty and obedience to the School's interests.
