H. Update on 2024–2025 LAUSD Charter School Oversight Reports

Matt Brown presented the School Oversight Reports and explained how the rubric has changed to not allow Governance, Finance and Organization to earn top scores when academic performance is low. He provided context and history related to the reports and the oversight process and relayed that LAUSD congratulated us on our performance in Governance, Finance and Organizational compliance.

I. Update on Renewal Process for TEACH Preparatory Elementary School

Matt Brown described the process for renewal of TEACH elementary and described the various scenarios that could happen since the school's data has improved and will likely move them from low performing to middle performing tier. He explained that the strategy is to apply in October to preserve the right of appeal and that the data will be out between the time we apply and the date LAUSD votes on the petition. He expressed optimism about the school's significant improvement.

Board Member Maye asked for clarification on the process in light of a school that has recently gone up for renewal and was bounced from LAUSD to LACOE several times.

Matt explained that the process is new, not very clear and could be drawn out. Matt emphasized that our priority is to make sure families, students and teachers are cared for and supported throughout the process and the outcome.
