II. Why the EL Program? / Porque la Programacion de Aprendizaje de Ingles?

A. Why the EL Program? / Porque la Programacion de Aprendizaje de Ingles?

Mr. Filidor led a discussion in sharing information regarding the English Learner program throughout our TEACH campuses for this current academic year. Mr. Filidor introduced himself in his new role as English Learner (EL) Program Manager.

Mr. Filidor continued by reading the English Learner Newsletter for the month of September which had the following information:

- School ELD Alignment. Mr. Filidor generally explained how he will be closely working at all of TEACH's campus moving forward where an alignment between all three campuses is now in place with designated English Learner Development (ELD) Instruction at all three school sites.

- New Classification Criteria. Mr. Filidor shared the statewide changes specific to new EL classification criteria that has now passed into law which eases reclassification and proficiency information for students.

- Feedback. Mr. Filidor expressed that in the past, feedback specific to ELAC was not emphasized. He expressed that a focus on feedback will now take place that would bring attention to each school and shared with our district leadership.

Mr. Filidor also shared important information that was specific to the entire academic year:

- English Learner Advisory Committee (ELAC) Meetings. Mr. Filidor shared that future ELAC meetings will be on the last Wednesday of each month via Zoom.

- Outside-the-Classroom Learning Opportunities. Mr. Filidor expressed the importance of outside the classroom trips and activities throughout the academic school year for EL Learners to both learn and practice speaking in English. Specifically, planned field trips will be shared soon.

- English Language Proficiency Assessments for California) ELPAC Prep. Mr. Filidor shared that in preparation for the annual ELPAC exams in November have now begun.

- ESL & Technology Class. Lastly, Mr. Filidor mentioned that the weekly ESL & Technology classes are at our TEACH Academy 5th/6th grade campus, Room 203, every Monday from 5pm-6:30pm. These classes are for both parents and students.
