G. Call to Public

Tania Reyes, 1st grade teacher at Vida, addressed the board regarding recent PSSA scores. Ms. Reyes commended Ms. Davis for her outstanding leadership over the last year which she credited to the increase in Vida's PSSA scores. She cited Ms. Davis' high expectations for all, exemplary supervision of faculty, targeted professional development, and attention to data in decision making and intervention strategies as factors contributing to student growth and improved performance.

H. Executive Director's report

Ms Davis reported a substantial increase in student PSSA scores this year. She also explained progress on the plan for improved student math performance and that the ELLs have been tested and are receiving appropriate instruction. School performance profiles have been released and Vida saw its score increase by 11%. Several school events were mentioned as were various marketing strategies and building repairs. Ms. Davis also mentioned that Melissa Turner is transitioning to Operations and Business Manager role and a consultant for PIMS data entry is being hired. Currently we are also using Spanish, Math, and English interventionists to assist students with these instructional needs.

II. Academic Excellence

A. PSSA scores

Cindy Bowen and Martha Davis cited substantial increases in PSSA scores for the last school year. Everyone in the Vida community is to be congratulated on their fine work and commitment to Vida's mission in seeing students succeed.
