C. Bowen seconded the motion.

The committee VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.

D. News & Announcements

Kathy Cuniff announced her resignation as BOT member effective February 3, 2016. The long commute and pressing dissertation responsibilities necessitate this decision.

Kathy expressed her delight to have been a part of VIDA Board of Trustees and indicated her willingness to contribute in a consulting role if desired. The committee unanimously agreed that Kathy's presence and professional incite have been invaluable and greatly appreciated.

II. Governance

A. Review Recruitment Procedures

Kathy addressed these items and will guide the updates before she terminates her position.

B. Recruitment Plan

Discussion revolved around review of Recruitment Procedures and Plans for the upcoming election. Topics included: board openings,potential board candidates, improvements that need to be made based on concerns/ criticism from last year's election, and proper placement of info on the website. These items exhausted our time and left us with much to consider and with specific assignments to accomplish.
