II. Updates & Looking Forward

A. Board Succession

- Tangi Bush will reach out to all individuals who have expressed interest in joining the Governing Board via email or phone; She will followup with those who have expressed interest however have not responded to previous communications
- The goal is to complete outreach efforts, gauge interest, and have interested parties attend either Governing Board meetings, independent committee meetings, or board interest coffee chats within the next 60-90 days to prepare for board members transitioning at the end of this academic year
- Board Member Interest Coffee Chats: Shameka Smith, Chanel Recasner, and Lisa Bentley-Whieldon will curate and host 20-30 minute informational meetings for individuals who express interest in the joining the Governing Board; Coffee Chat schedule TBD

III. Reminders

A. Financial Commitment + Training Hour Requirements

- The 2025 Georgia Charter School Association conference will be taking place March 10-12, 2025, several board members are planning to attend
- There are 2 training opportunities coming up on Board on Track to assist in gaining required training hours for board members:
  - Jan. 28, 2025: "January Reset" a training focused on starting the new year off right as a board and making and maintaining a plan to achieve board goals; and
  - Feb. 18, 2025: "Board Engagement" a training focused on how to optimize post-meeting time for board members.
- Tangi Bush will provide board members with an updated record of their training hours achieved and financial contributions made for the academic year, by the end of the week for record keeping and pace setting

IV. New Business

A. Update TMSA Charter Renewal Plan:

- This item will be addressed in the near future

B.

Board Policy Document:

- Language was approved months ago however the form/composition must be finalized;
- Goal is to have form finalized by Jan. 28, 2025, governing board meeting
